EX-TOP SPY ASIM MUNIR TAKES CHARGE AS PAK ARMY CHIEF

General Asim Munir on Tuesday replaced Gen Qamar Javed Bajwa, who retired after serving two consecutive 3-yr terms

IT COMES AMID IMRAN KHAN-GOVT SLUGFEST

Munir, who is in his mid-50s, takes over at a time when the cash-strapped, coup-prone country is in the midst of a political slugfest between the government and opposition leader Imran Khan. His appointment coincides with a dispute between the military and Khan, who blames the army for playing a role in his ouster in April this year through a no-confidence vote

TAKING ON TEHREEK THREAT 1ST MAJOR TEST

- The new Army chief would have to tackle a host of problems, including the threat from militants. His inauguration comes a day after the Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan militants called off an indefinite ceasefire agreed with the government in June and ordered its militants to carry out attacks across the country

Bike aggregator may face legal action after girl gangraped

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A 22-year-old woman was gangraped by the rider of a Rapido bike and his friend in Electronics City. As part of the probe, the antecedents of the bike rider, who is the main accused, are being checked with the bike taxi aggregator Rapido. "As of now, it appears that Rapido did not do background verification of the biker before hiring him and we are planning to take legal action against Rapido," a police officer said.

A senior police officer said that the survivor, who hails from Kerala, had come to the city to meet her friend in SG Palya. After dinner, she booked the Rapido bike to reach Electronics City. On the way, she asked the rider, identified as Shahabuddin, for a cigarette following which he called two of his friends and asked them to bring cigarettes. Meanwhile, he took her to his house by telling her that his friends will bring the cigarettes. At his house, Shahabuddin and his friend allegedly raped her at midnight. The other accused works in a mobile phone shop.

Their common female friend was also at the scene of crime and witnessed the incident.

The woman lodged a police complaint after she regained consciousness. All three accused have been arrested.

Not liable for adverse effects of Covid vax: Govt to SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Central government has informed the Supreme Court that it cannot be held liable for adverse effects due to the administration of Covid vaccine, adding compensation for death induced by a shot can be sought by filing a suit in court.

"If a person suffers physical injury or death from an AFFI (adverse effects following immunisation), appropriate remedies in law are open to the vaccine beneficiary or their family including approaching civil courts for a claim of damages/compensation for negligence, malfeasance or misfeasance. Such claims may be determined on a case-to-case basis in an appropriate forum. There is no material to suggest how the State can be fastened with strict liability for the tragic," the affidavit states.

The Centre's response came in a plea filed by parents who lost their daughters after being administered Covid vaccine last year. The plea had sought significant compensation for their loss as also appointment of a medical board for preparing a protocol for early detection and timely treatment of AEFI due to the vaccine.

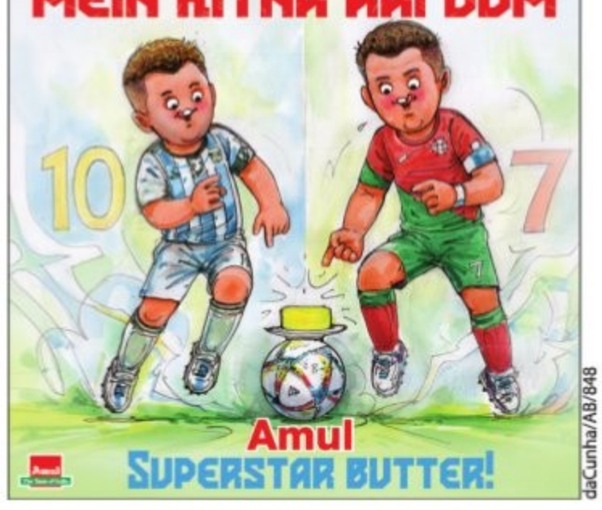
The government said vaccination under the National Covid-19 Vaccination Program is totally voluntary.

"The Operational Guidelines issued by the Central Government to all States/UTs clearly state that vaccination is voluntary. The concept of informed consent is inapplicable to the voluntary use of a drug such as a vaccine. While the Government of India strongly encourages all eligible persons to undertake vaccination in public interest, there is no legal compulsion for the same."

"AEFI investigation and causality assessment process is a completely transparent process," it added.

Transparent system

"AFFIs are thoroughly examined and results are made public as soon as possible. Existing mechanism for monitoring, investigation and analysis is adequate, effective and transparent," the affidavit states



Air India all set to become India's largest int'l airline

Vistara, its joint venture with Singapore Airlines, will merge into it

ARSHAD KHAN @New Delhi

IN a major consolidation in the aviation space that will catapult Air India into the country's second largest domestic carrier and largest international airline, Tata Sons and Singapore Airlines on Tuesday said their joint venture Vistara will be merged into the national carrier. After merger, brand Vistara will cease to exist.

The deal will need regulatory approval and the entire process is expected to take around 16 months. The Singapore firm, which has a 49% stake in Vistara, will invest ₹2,059 crore in Air India and have a 25.1% stake in an enlarged Air India group. The Tatas will hold the remaining 74.9% stake.

After the merger, Air India's fleet strength will grow to 218, second only to IndiGo's 279.

The consolidation is part of Tata groups' strategy to bring its airline business under one roof. Earlier this year, it had initiated the merger of AirAsia India with Air India Express.

It is learnt that the Tatas plans to have two strong verticals — Air India Express as a formidable low-cost airline and Air India as a full-service carrier, which will take on the likes of Emirates, Lufthansa and Qatar Airways that currently dominate international operations from India.

For Singapore Airlines, the merger with Air India means strategic advantage as it will get significant presence in all key market segments.

"The merger is an important milestone in our journey to make Air India a truly world-class airline. As part of the transformation, Air India is focusing on growing both its network and fleet, revamping its customer proposition, enhancing safety, reliability, and on-time performance," said N Chandrasekaran, chairman, Tata Sons.

According to experts, the consolidation marks the beginning of a duopoly in Indian aviation with IndiGo and Air india controlling 80-85% of domestic traffic. "There can be a price war. This would be a positive for passengers but a nightmare for weaker airlines such as GoFirst and SpiceJet," said a senior aviation analyst.

WHAT THE MERGER MEANS

- Brand Vistara will cease to exist
- SIA, which owns 49% in Vistara, will invest ₹2,059 crore and have 25.1% stake in Air India
- Air India to become India's 2nd largest domestic carrier with a fleet of 218 aircraft
- Merger to be completed by March 2024 subject to regulatory approval

COLLISION COURSE

GOVT RETURNS 20 NAMES TO SC COLLEGIUM

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Centre has asked the Supreme Court collegium to reconsider 20 names for appointment as high court judges, including that of senior advocate Saurabh Kirpal who if approved could become India's first openly gay judge.

The Delhi HC collegium in October 2017 had recommended Kirpal, son of former Chief Justice of India B N Kirpal, as HC judge. The SC collegium deferred the deliberations thrice and the then CJI S A Bobde had asked government to send more information on Kirpal. In November 2021, the collegium headed by former CJI N V Ramana decided in Kirpal's favour. In a media interview, Kirpal had recently said that the reason for his name being kept hanging was his sexual orientation.

People familiar with the appointments said the government had expressed strong reservations about the recommendations while sending the file back. Out of the 20 names, 11 were fresh, nine others had been reiterated.

Amidst anguish expressed by the SC on Monday over delay in government approving names, Centre on Tuesday cleared the appointment of two additional judges to the Bombay HC - advocates Santosh Govindrao Chapalgaonkar and Milind Manohar Sathaye.

On Monday, a bench of justices S K Kaul and A S Oka had said, "Once the name is reiterated, that's the end of the matter of the law as it stands. When recommendation is made, you cannot hold back the name without stating the reason.

'Urgentina' for Messi magic today

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

ARGENTINA and their fans never expected this. A place in the last 16 is still a match away. Only a win will ensure they march into the knockouts. The team is heavily reliant on that one man — Lionel Messi. La Albiceleste, who survived a must-not lose clash against Mexico, know that destiny is in their own hands against Poland on Wednesday. They are not alone. Four-time champions Germany too are walking the tightrope.

While the Poles, save Robert Lewandowski, are sans superstars, they are a tricky outfit to face in the best of days. They pride themselves on defensive organisation — they are only one of three sides yet to concede a goal in this year's edition (Morocco and Brazil the others) — and they do possess the discipline to keep their opponents quiet. Considering they don't have to force the issue — a draw will also take them through — expect another tight, cagey game. However, it all depends on one of the greatest footballers — Messi — and the way he weaves through the Polish defence. The magic against Mexico must be recreated, perhaps with more panache and zest.

Germany, on the other hand, have a more straight-forward afternoon in front of them on Thursday. Beat Costa Rica and advance. Inversely, Costa Rica know they will advance with a win. Germany have not been eliminated from the group stages in back-to-back World Cups and they recovered after that early setback against Spain.

Among other direct winner-takes-all battles, the most intriguing are a pair of fixtures who have lots of Cup history: Ghana vs Uruguay and Serbia vs Switzerland. There is also Belgium vs Croatia, two of the four semifinalists four years ago, facing each other knowing there could only be a slot between the pair.

Speaking of the Asian nations, both Saudi Arabia and Japan let their advantage slip with losses. But, they still can advance if they beat Spain (for Japan) and Mexico (Saudi). P17

B'luru growing vertically, but no one knows how much the city can take

BOSKY KHANNA @Bengaluru

'GROW vertically' is the state government's call given to Bengaluru as there is a severe space crunch to expand horizontally. But while tall residential and commercial structures are coming up in the state capital, there appears to be no one keeping tabs on the city's capacity to support skyscrapers — especially when seismic activities are becoming more frequent in the Deccan Plateau and skyscrapers require deeper digging to support their foundations.

Unfortunately, there is no data with any of the agencies on how many tall structures the city can support, nor on how many skyscrapers stand in Bengaluru. Neither Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) nor the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) have a list or a consolidated data on number of high-rise structures (residential and commercial) in the city.

BBMP Town Planning chief Sunil Kumar said they were giving permission based on BDA's master plan and floor area ratio. "We do not have consolidated data on how many apartments and commercial spaces stand in Bengaluru," he said.

The BDA officials in the meantime admitted that Bengaluru was still growing as per the 2015 master plan and there has been no evaluation of its growth till 2022.

This is also worrisome as seismic experts question the unregulated deep digging for laying foundation for high-rise structures. "So far, the Deccan Plateau is known to be the hardest and oldest rock formation. But with the recent incidents of earthquakes in various parts of Karnataka, and the rising tall structures and intense infrastructure projects being undertaken in Bengaluru, it is high time a detailed study is conducted," said a seismologist and official from the Mines and Geology Department.

Citing the example of a 35-storey building in the city, the official explained, the foundation has to be at least 20 feet deep. The effects of such deep drilling needs to be assessed.

MULTI-LINGUAL BIOPIC

Lights, camera, action... Siddu's life to come alive on silver screen

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

HERE'S some good news for fans and followers of senior Congress leader Siddaramaiah. He has been approached by a team of film makers who want to make a biopic on him next year. The makers, who want to make a multi-lingual movie on the life and achievements of the former chief minister, were not disappointed as Siddaramaiah is said to have told them to come back with a detailed script next month.

However, Siddaramaiah will not face the camera, sources from his office said. Talks are on with Tamil actor and producer Vijay Sethupathi to play Siddaramiah's role. It is said that the film crew was inspired after witnessing Siddaramotsava, the 75th birthday celebration of the leader, held in August this year.

Shivaraj Tangadagi, senior Congress leader and former MLA from Kanakagiri assembly constituency in Koppal district, said the film makers requested him to introduce them to Siddaramaiah as they were keen on making the movie.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, Tangadagi said, "Siddaramaiah has not yet given his consent. He has asked them to meet him again in the first week of December. If everything goes well, the shooting of the film will start before December," he said, adding that the movie is being planned to be made under MS Creations banner.

Sources close to Siddaramaiah said the movie is unlikely to be ready before assembly polls early next year.

"It needs at least six to eight months to shoot and edit the film. It cannot be released before polls". If made, the movie won't be limited to Kannada audience.

"The makers are impressed with Siddaramaiah's schemes, especially Anna Bhagya and other initiatives", the sources added.

Siddaramaiah (75), born in a family of farmers had no formal schooling. He was directly admitted to middle-level school. He later completed his BSc and also studied law. He started his political career in 1983 when he won Chamundeshwari assembly constituency from Mysuru. Siddaramaiah is one among few chief minister in Karnataka to complete a full five-year term as CM.

Saleem's 5-point pill for ORR traffic ills

Wrong parking on service road not allowed

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IN an effort to ease movement of traffic on the Outer Ring Road (ORR), MA Saleem, Special Commissioner (Traffic), has come up with a five-point solution.

The ADGP-rank officer had an exhaustive meeting with the Outer Ring Road Companies Association (ORRCA), which resulted in the action plan. Saleem has also directed the Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP), Whitefield Traffic subdivision, to immediately implement the plan, for which a review will be conducted on December 6. Parking and encroachment of the Service Road, U-turns between the Marathahalli bridge and Yemlur, Service Road on the Outer Ring Road from Hebbal flyover to Silk Board will be made one-way due to lack of the main carriage way because of BMRCL works, are some of the significant changes which will come into effect on the ORR.

Speaking to TNIE, HJ Thippeswamy, ACP, Whitefield traffic sub-division, said that a special drive has been undertaken to remove wrong parking along the service road on the ORR, which will be strictly enforced. "We have also requested the BBMP to clear the semi-structures on the pavements. The service road has been cleared of pushcart vendors. At some stretch on the service road, traffic is slowing down as motorists are using a one-way stretch as two-way. The issue is being sorted out by reverting to one-way flow of traffic, while U-turns at some points will be shifted ahead to reduce snarls," the ACP added.

ACTION PLAN

The service road on the ORR will be made one-way from Hebbal flyover to Silk Board

Parking and encroachment of service road will be removed to ensure free flow of traffic

Regularisation of parking for private buses parked on the ORR for a long time

U-turns between Marathahalli bridge and Yemlur to be either closed or regulated properly

ORRCA to provide 50 traffic marshals to be deployed along with the traffic police to prevent wrong parking and manage traffic. The marshals' uniform should be similar to that of the traffic marshals of Electronics City Industries Association (ELCIA)

Special officers to verify voters' list

Bengaluru: The Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has appointed officials to conduct a voter list verification in Shivajinagar, Chickpet and Mahadevapura in the wake of allegations of voter data theft and tampering by Chilume NGO, that was allegedly hired by the Palike. Priyanka Mary Francis for Shivajinagar Assembly constituency, Dr R Vishal for Chickpet, and Ajay Nagbhushan for Mahadevapura have been assigned as special officers to verify the voter list. Recognised political parties have been instructed to provide the details of additions and deletions of names in the assembly constituencies, the BBMP said, adding that the last date for submitting objections and claims for special revision of list in these constituencies have been extended till December 24. Earlier, the Election Commission had suspended two officers S Rangappa, Special Commissioner for BBMP Administration, and K Srinivas, Deputy Commissioner.

VOTER DATA THEFT

BBMP chief may be shunted out

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH four Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) officials in police custody on charges of helping the tainted NGO Chilume and over 100 Palike revenue officials being served police notices in the voters data theft case, there are reports that BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath may be shunted out. There is speculation that former BBMP commissioners Gaurav Gupta or N Manjunath Prasad may be brought back to head the civic agency.

Reacting to the reports of a possible transfer, Girinath said, "I don't know anything about this (rumours). We are just doing our work."

Last week, the Election Commission (EC) suspended two senior BBMP officials -- Rangappa, Admin Commissioner and Additional Electoral Registration Officer, and K Srinivas, Bengaluru DC, Admin Commissioner and Additional Electoral Registration Officer -- for the alleged lapses. According to a senior official, more heads are likely to roll as the ECI feels its reputation is under threat.

The scam has also given ammo to Congress to corner the BJP in an election year.

Former Bengaluru incharge minister R Ramalinga Reddy said, "No point in taking action against some BBMP officials. Few ministers and even the CM himself, who has retained the Bengaluru Development portfolio, should be held responsible."

Meanwhile, following the directions of EC, the state government has appointed Assistant Electoral Registration Officer in all 224 assembly segments to assist Electoral Registration Officers to prepare the voters' list.

Live streaming of university meets in Dec

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IT-BT minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan on Tuesday said that live streaming of academic council finance committee and syndicate meetings of universities will be launched to mark the good governance month in December. Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will inaugurate the programme on December 1, he said.

Speaking to media persons on the sidelines of the meeting, he said that over the last three years, December 25 has been celebrated as 'good governance day' to commemorate the birth anniversary of late Prime Minister AB Vajpayee.

However, this year, the entire month will be observed as good governance month in the departments of higher education, electronics/IT-BT and skill development, entrepreneurship and livelihood.

"Live streaming of meetings on social media will bring in transparency in the university's administration," he said. Universities have also been asked to upload all information on their websites by December 10. For constituent colleges, which do not have their websites, they can upload the information on the university website, he added. The information will include student fee, funds sanctioned, ongoing projects, and details of teaching and non-teaching staff.

To implement NEP, universities need to have an institution development plan which is mandatory as per the NITI Aayog.

Palike workers to EC: Huge pressure, appoint BLOs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Workers Union has appealed to the Election Commission of India (ECI) to appoint Booth Level Officers (BLOs) as this may ease the pressure from the Palike's revenue officials.

Addressing a press conference in the city, president of the association Amruth Raj said that since the beginning of the election process, the workload on the officials has increased. He also said that the officials are being paid very less.

Raj claimed that signatures of BBMP officials were forged and it was not appropriate to arrest the revenue officials as per the Representation of the Public Act based on a complaint filed by the BBMP.

"Action should be taken against Chilume NGO. The BBMP officials are ready for a probe by the police and the Chief Electoral Officer. Do not torture BBMP revenue officials mentally," said Raj.

"Action should be taken against Chilume NGO. BBMP officials are ready for a probe by police and the Chief Electoral Officer. Don't torture BBMP revenue officials mentally"

Senior advocate Srinivas said that as per the Representation of Public Act, the BBMP cannot file a complaint. It is the Chief Electoral Officer who should file a complaint. The legal process is not being followed," he alleged.

"Chilume organisation BLOs have committed an illegal act by making fake identity cards. Instead of taking action against them, the BBMP is cracking down on its revenue officers," the lawyer said.

ONE APP TO BOOK CAB, AUTO WITH METRO TICKET SOON

S LALITHA @ Bengaluru

THE Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) has sought the services of two private companies to develop an application through which commuters can book an autorickshaw or a cab along with a Metro ticket on their phones.

BMRCL Managing Director Anjum Parwez told TNIE that multi-modal urban mobility platform Citility and Giz India, which had set up the city's first Green Urban Mobility Innovation Living Lab in Bengaluru in association with Bosch, have been asked to develop the app. "It is at a nascent stage and we have explained our requirements to them. They will take some months to come up with it, but as soon as one of those is ready with it, we will launch it immediately for commuters."

A BMRCL official confirmed that Giz has been working on it as a pilot project. "The idea is that the app will link third parties so that autorickshaws or cabs can be booked when the commuter is at home, ahead of taking the Metro ride. Various options are being discussed to realise the project," the official said. Directorate of Urban Land Transport Commissioner V Manjula also confirmed to TNIE that Giz India, which was working on addressing the city's transportation issues, was working on such a project.

Asked if Namma Metro app would become redundant if tickets were to be booked using the new app, Parwez said. "The passengers will not be aware of the processing but it will make use of our app," he said.

Air Chief Chaudhari to address Commanders' Conference on December 2 in city

Bengaluru: The two-day Training Command Commanders' Conference is slated to commence on December 1 in Bengaluru. The conference will be attended by commanders of various training establishments under Training Command. The inaugural and closing session of the conference will be chaired by Air Marshal Manavendra Singh, Air Officer Commanding-in-Chief Training Command. Air Chief Marshal VR Chaudhari, Chief of the Air Staff, will address the commanders on December 2.

KEA president BC Prabhakar and vice-president and honorary CEO of KEA Raj Pillai felicitates founder and chairman of Wipro, Azim Premji during the Karnataka Employees Association Diamond Jubilee celebrations in Bengaluru on Tuesday. For an economy to work well and be vibrant, a culture and system should be created where firms and their employees can work as partners, said Premji. "Building such a system is critical. It is the only way for businesses to be successful, and it is the responsibility of the leadership on both sides to be able to resolve issues amicably," he said. Lauding KEA, he said, "KEA's fundamental characteristics have withstood the test of time. It's resolve to move ahead is a welcome move." | VINOD KUMAR T

'Groundwater table has also started to dip'

EXPERTS and officials from the departments of Mines and Geology, Environment and Ground Water Board have demanded carrying capacity study.

Officials from the Ground Water Board said the groundwater table has also started to dip and permissions are being denied in many cases. "On an average groundwater table ranges from 15-25 metres. So, as a policy-decision we give permission for digging borewells for half the extraction quantity applicant is seeking permission for and also making it mandatory for double quantity rain water harvesting," the official said.

Officials from the environment department pointed out that permission for high rise structures is taken on a piecemeal basis but the ground reality is completely different.

"The civic bodies have little or no control of the construction," officials added. The authorities seem to have finally woken up, and have planned to take the space route to put things in order. "We have asked the Karnataka State Remote Sensing and Application Centre to prepare satellite and drone images of ground details at the cost of Rs 1.40 crore. This will be used for the 2041 master plan," BDA town planning department, joint director, H V Sannapaiah said.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

30th November : A whole range of planetary movements offers a variety of possible paths to the future. An approaching Mercury-Pluto pattern tells us that the time is coming for big decisions - and unusual choices. In general, we're entering a time when it's good to do things which are out of the ordinary - and have never been done before!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Your monthly cycles are still heading towards renewed pleasure, but your daily influences urge a business-like attitude. Professional Ariens will have to take a leap in the dark before long. And you will all have to pay more attention to partners' needs.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
You are often as sailed for your conservatism and what others see as your dogmatic refusal to change. However, family members - and anyone else lucky enough to live with you - will benefit from a journey to the past. You never know what you might find!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
A generally business like mood dominates the day, so everyone is going to keep coming back to what they see as 'reality'. The fact is, though, that what was true yesterday is not true today, a statement which should make more sense to you than to most other people.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Tolerance and flexibility are probably your most important qualities at the moment. It may not be easy when you can see that other people are wrong, but you must give them a chance to explain themselves. You may even, heaven forbid, have to stand back and let them do their worst before you step in.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Here you are with the Sun fulfilling one set of celestial conditions, Mercury and Venus another. The best possible outcome is a spate of fresh invitations. Lost letters may be found and delayed information may arrive, which should be some consolation.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You may now return to a secret romantic fantasy. This doesn't imply that you'll be escaping from reality, for an astrological perspective decrees that your dreams are vital to your emotional well-being. An apparently time-wasting activity may be anything but that.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Your social life is about to improve, but first there are various family matters to be organised. A domestic arrangement should be tightened up, and if you're looking for a firm commitment then you need to mix with the people who are prepared to stand by their promises.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Do give a high priority to all talks and discussions. Communication is vital, so you'll do well to confess all and keep nothing back - within reason of course. What you've got to do is consult the people who can help you, rather than just stand by and watch while you handle new challenges alone.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
A small financial consideration will go a long way towards soothing troubled relationships and raising your profile at work. Only when other people are also taken into account will a domestic log-jam be shifted. It may be that all a partner needs is for you to acknowledge their concerns.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
In spite of the fact that the world is generally on your side, you are liable to be a little over-sensitive. Before you take offence, just remember that it's the Moon which gives you such a thin skin. So, don't jump up and down when someone says something that they don't really mean.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The time will come when you'll have to lay yourself on the line. Ironically, only after you have taken one or two risks will you set yourself up for a very safe and secure future. You may have to reluctantly agree to do something you've been avoiding for a very long time.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
One feature of working life this week will be a renewed effort to work in improved circumstances. If you bring a little colour into your life then you'll do a great deal to lift your morale. Financial matters may be subject to some delay, giving you time to think again.

Yesterday's Jumbles: CLOAK AFTER DISOWN CHOOSY
Answer: The new shoe store had just opened and was quickly gaining a — FOOTHOLD

A day after a BBMP garbage truck hit two people near Doddaballapur killing them, the Palike announced a compensation of Rs 25 lakh each to the kin of the two victims — Mahesh and Maruti, both aged 35. The duo was riding a two-wheeler when the speeding garbage truck hit them at 5 pm near Hulikunte Gate under Doddabelavangala police limits on Monday

Teens sustain serious burns on tracks of Whitefield goods stn

S LALITHA & MG CHETAN
@Bengaluru

TWO teenagers suffered burn injuries and one of them is in a critical condition after a suspected freak accident on the tracks of Whitefield Satellite Goods Terminal (SGWF) on Friday night. The duo is suspected to have come in contact with the overhead high-tension electrical wires that power trains, said multiple railway sources.

The 14-year-old girl has sustained 60 per cent burns and is in a critical condition, while the boy, 15, has sustained 10 per cent burns, said a senior Government Railway Police officer. The youngsters are neighbours in a posh apartment in Hoodi and had walked down to the goods station.

The GRP officer said, "We filed an NCR (non-cognisable report) the same night. The victims are not in a position to speak and their parents too are not giving any information. They are shocked."

A top Railway Protection Force (RPF) official said a policeman on patrol duty at SGWF rushed near the tracks around 8.45 pm after hearing the screams of the two teenagers. "The boy and the girl were lying next to the railway tracks (loop line) with severe burns. They were rushed to the nearby Vydehi Hospital. The girl was later shifted to the burns ward at St John's Hospital, while the boy was sent to Manipal Hospital," said a top RPF officer.

The public are not allowed to enter SGWF and goods trains are stationed here when not in use.

A top railway official said four days after the incident there is still no clarity on how the incident occurred. "The overhead wires that power the trains have a capacity of 25 kilovolts, which is extremely high. Any human coming in contact would be reduced to ashes," he said.

Another official said the wires are 100 per cent safe, certified and high above the ground. "Anyone touching them or coming in close contact with them is openly inviting death," he added.

An electrical expert said, "It is not possible that electricity would have struck them while they were standing below as railway staff keep working and patrolling below these lines. The two might have, somehow, gone very close to the wire (possibly within a 2-metre distance) and electricity would have passed through them."

Another possibility is that they might have climbed on top of the goods train and tried to take a selfie. The power above could have struck their mobiles and caused the accident, another official said. But it is difficult to climb a goods train as there are no steps or doors.

GRP is waiting for the statements of the victims to file an FIR. Divisional Railway Manager Shyam Singh said he was not aware of any such incident. The Safety Department chief did not respond to repeated calls.

Gold concealed in iron boxes seized

ENS @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU Airport Customs officials on Tuesday foiled an attempt made by a 22-year-old male passenger to smuggle nearly 3 kg of gold concealed inside two electric iron boxes in his check-in luggage, said a source. The gold, valued at Rs 1.62 crore, was being smuggled from Dubai in an Emirates flight.

This is the first time that such a recovery has been made on the Airbus A380, the world's largest passenger flight, which made its debut in Bengaluru last month. The flight, EK-568, reached Kempegowda International Airport at 2.30 am.

"The gold was being concealed in the sole-plate (the steel portion used for pressing clothes) of the boxes. It was melted and the paste was impressed on it so that it could be well concealed inside the plate," added the source. Elaborating on how it was detected, another source said that when the bag was passed through the X-ray scanner by Customs officials, a mild patch of black was revealed. "Based on suspicion, it was passed through a sophisticated scanner which confirmed that something was concealed inside. The iron boxes were broken and the gold was recovered," the source added.

4 killed in separate accidents

ENS @ Bengaluru

FOUR people were killed in two separate accidents in the city on Tuesday.

In the first accident, two employees of a solar panel company were killed on the spot after a BMTC bus crashed into their two-wheeler near Magadi Road junction in Tavarekere at 2.30 pm. The victims Manjunath, 29 and Shivaraj, 25, residents of Gollarahatti, were returning home after providing a solar panel connection in Sunkadakatte. Manjunath, who was riding the bike, was waiting for the signal to turn green to enter NICE Road. Meanwhile, the BMTC bus, driven in a reckless manner, hit the bike and ran over the duo. Passersby caught the driver and handed him over to the police.

In another accident, two men were killed after a speeding canter hit their bike on Devanahalli Road. The victims are Rakesh and Pratap, residents of Doddaballapur town. The police said that the accident happened in the early hours when the duo was going to attend a family function. The canter, which was heading towards Hoskote, hit the bike and both were killed on the spot. The canter driver escaped soon after the mishap. Devanahalli traffic police rushed to the spot and shifted the bodies for postmortem.

2 drugs peddlers held, 2.5 kg opium recovered

Bengaluru: Two interstate drug peddlers from Rajasthan were arrested by the SR Nagar police and 2.5 kg of opium recovered from the duo. One of them, Kishan Das, 45, was arrested near Sri Kanteerava Stadium on November 3. Based on the information given by him, Jagadish Singh, 52, was arrested in Rajasthan on Sunday. The police are checking the details of their other associates and clients. The recovered drugs are estimated around Rs 3 lakh. Along with the drugs, the police have also recovered a two-wheeler, cash and two mobile phones.

Discussion to settle marital dispute ends in murder

ENS @ Bengaluru

A heated discussion to settle a marital dispute ended in the murder of a man in JJ Nagar police station limits on Monday. The deceased is Humayan while his brother Javed was injured.

The police said Javed and his wife Muskan had a marital discord and were separated. Elders from both families had held meetings to settle the issue but it was not sorted. On Monday, Muskan, her brothers Syed Faisal, Sultan, and a relative Azmath came to Javed's house to discuss the issue.

"There was an argument and the accused attacked Javed with lethal weapons. Humayun, who intervened, was punched in his chest by Faisal and he collapsed. He was taken to a hospital where he was declared brought dead. We have arrested the accused and booked them for murder and attempt to murder," the police said.

Security guard held for robbing ₹19L from ATM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A 23-year-old security guard was arrested by Wilson Garden police on Monday for allegedly stealing Rs 19.9 lakh from an ATM kiosk to settle down with his girlfriend.

The arrested Deeponkar Nomosudara, who is from Assam, had come to the city six months ago for a job.

Deeponkar, who had got a job as a security guard at an ATM kiosk of a nationalised bank on the 13th Cross in Wilson Garden, managed to break open the cash container and escaped with Rs 19.9 lakh on November 17, following which the bank manager had filed a case.

The police examined the CCTV footage and found that Deeponkar entered the kiosk, posing as a customer, swtiched off the lights and turned the camera to another direction. Investigations revealed that on the same day, Deeponkar headed to Hyderabad with the cash and had dumped his phone and SIM card before boarding a train to reach Assam.

With the loot, he had planned to open a restaurant and marry his girlfriend, but a perfect happy ending eluded him.

The accused had already spent Rs4 lakh buying gifts for his girlfriend, and the rest Rs15.5 lakh was recovered by the police.

The police said Nomosudara was earlier working as a security guard at a private hospital, and two months ago had joined a security agency.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai calls on Defence Minister Rajnath Singh in New Delhi on Tuesday | EXPRESS

CM discusses pending projects on Delhi visit

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai, who has been following up on projects concerning Karnataka, met Defence Minister Rajnath Singh in the national capital on Tuesday, and pressed for the transfer of 732.24 acres of land, vested with the defence authorities in Belagavi, to take up development works since it belongs to the state government.

"In the interest of development, the land should be handed over to the Belagavi deputy commissioner," he appealed to Rajnath. According to sources, the state government has sent proposals several times, as the projects, including an IT park, have been proposed on that land.

Bommai also met Union Minister of Environment, Forest and Climate Change Bhupendar Yadav, and appealed to him that the buffer zones of Gudekote sloth bear sanctuary and Bhimaghad reserve forest be declared eco-sensitive since the Karnataka cabinet has already approved it.

He appealed to Union Textiles Minister Piyush Goyal to provide grants to set up mega textile parks at Kalaburagi, Vijayapura and Tumakuru under PM MITRA (Mega Integrated Textile Region and Apparel) scheme.

No meeting with Nadda

Bommai, who had hoped for an appointment with BJP national president JP Nadda to discuss politics and cabinet rejig could not meet him as the latter was travelling. Congress in Karnataka chided Bommai, saying the party high command is deliberately ignoring him. "Why is Nadda not giving appointment to Bommai though he was enthusiastic to meet him. Is Bommai so incompetant," the Congress tweeted.

This is not new. Jath villages have been demanding it for years as they do not have even basic infrastructure

- Basavaraj Bommai, Chief Minister

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Tuesday said Karnataka will effectively fight against the Maharashtra government's claims over the border in the Supreme Court. He expected a "good outcome" based on the Constitution and the States' Reorganisation Act, with the case likely to come up before the Supreme Court soon.

Informed sources said, "The case, however, is unlikely to come up before the SC on Wednesday as expected, since the Constitution bench headed by Justice KM Joseph is still hearing another matter. Only if that stops, the border case will be placed."

But Bommai, speaking to reporters in New Delhi, claimed that he and state Advocate General Prabhuling Navadgi briefed state counsel Mukul Rohatgi on the background of the Maharashtra-Karnataka border issue and its legal status.

"In 2017, then Chief Justice of India Dipak Misra had framed preliminary issues regarding the maintainability of the case, which was challenged by Maharashtra. What should be our objections or arguments to it has been decided and we are all prepared to justify our legal stand," he asserted.

On the damage caused to Karnataka vehicles in Maharashtra recently, Bommai said such things had happened earlier too because of local politics. But he claimed that the situation is under control now.

On Kannadigas from 42 villages in Maharashtra, which are close to the border, wishing to meet him with a demand to merge their areas with the state, Bommai said any decision can be taken only after an all-party meeting. Also, a legal opinion has to be taken as the issue is before the Supreme Court, he added. "This is not new. They have been demanding it for many years as they do not have even basic infrastructure," he said.

On Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah questioning him over the merger of the villages with the state, Bommai shot back, asking why he did not do it when he was the chief minister.

"When he (Siddaramaiah) was the chief minister, a similar resolution was made. Why did he not get those areas into Karnataka? For joining parts of the other state, things have to be considered legally. I'm a responsible chief minister and everything has to be done within the constitutional and legal framework," he added.

KRV activists felicitate public bus drivers from Maharashtra with garlands and shawls containing prints of the Karnataka emblem in Athani on Tuesday | EXPRESS

KRV men honour bus crew from Maharashtra

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Athani

ACTIVISTS of Karnataka Rakshana Vedike (KRV), belonging to the Praveen Kumar Shetty faction, staged a unique type of protest here on Tuesday, when they felicitated drivers and conductors of the Maharashtra state transport corporation with garlands and shawls, bearing the Karnataka emblem. Their message: "Not to damage government property like buses, which provide service to the people of both Karnataka and Maharashtra, due to the border dispute."

After the protest, the activists submitted a memorandum to Athani Tahsildar Suresh Munge, which was addressed to the CM, urging that the government conduct an all-party meeting to discuss the border dispute. It also urged that legal experts and Kannada organisations be invited to attend the meeting.

The memorandum also urged the banning of political parties like Shiv Sena and Maharashtra Ekikaran Samiti in Karnataka, while protecting Kannadigas coming from Maharashtra to Karnataka.

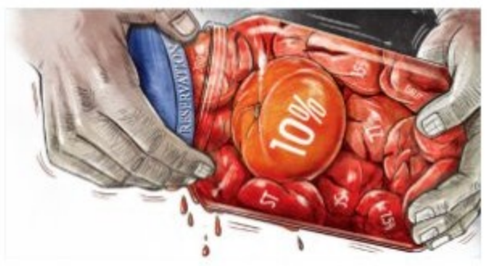
KRV taluk president Annasab Telsang led the protest. District coordinator Jagannath Bamane, Deepak Shinde and others were also present.

'UNFAIR, NO FACILITIES FOR JATH PEOPLE'

BELAGAVI: The Maharshtra government is doing injustice to the people of the Jath taluk, despite getting their votes in the elections for the past 50 years, alleged Somaling Choudhari, president of Jath Kannada Samiti. The leaders from the Jath taluk held a press conference in Belagavi on Tuesday, a day after people from 40 villages of the taluk expressed their desire to see their areas merged with Karnataka. Choudhari alleged that the political leaders of Maharashtra came to meet the people of Jath only during eleections and then deprived them of even the basic amenities in villages for the past five decades. "They have done injustice to us all the time and continue to do the same even today. The Maharashtra government spoke in our (people of Jath) favour only when Karnataka CM Basavaraj Bommai issued a statement to develop Jath taluk recently. But we need a permanent solution to our problems here and therefore we request Bommai to help merge the Jath taluk with Karnataka," he urged.

SC/ST quota: BJP changes plot, Cong shaken

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru



CONGRESS is organising a massive SC/ST convention in Chitradurga about a week before the Sankranti festival next year to woo the communities, which account for over one-fifth of the population in the state.

The state Assembly has 51 SC/ST members and 18 of them are from Congress. The opposition party has traditionally enjoyed the support of these communities. But this time, there could be a change in the equation as the BJP government recently increased the reservation by 6 per cent for the communities to gain their support before the 2023 Assembly elections.

But Congress has been claiming that the process of increasing the reservation was started by the Siddaramaiah government, which constituted the Nagamohan Das committee and also received its report. The BJP is claiming credit only because it is in power power now, Congress leaders said.

Former deputy chief minister Dr G Parameshwara, who is looking at getting the SC/ST support for Congress, said, "We apportioned 24 per cent of the budget to SC/STs. This hike in reservation is just hot air."

The BJP government's decision to make contract pourakarmikas permanent too could help the party.

Congress held an important, closed-door meeting a few days ago at working president Satish Jarkiholi's residence, where they discussed strategies to counter the BJP seat wise and issue wise.

From BJP, Chaluvadi Narayanswamy, who spent over 15 years with Congress, has been working on the strategy for the communities. Congress is also aware how they lost some SC/ST seats because JDS tied up with BSP and garnered a large share of the votes. Even stalwart SC Congress leader HC Mahadevappa lost to JDS' Ashvin Kumar in T Narasipur by a humiliating margin of 45,000 votes. Congress will look for issues, like the recent incident in Chamarajanagar district where upper caste people washed a mini-tank after a Dalit woman drank from it and the contentious temple entry, to highlight the oppression of Dalits.

Brand guru Harish Bijoor said, "SC/STs represent a massive swing factor of votes and sentiment as they represent 19-23 per cent of the electorate. Once upon a time, this was a Congress vote bank chunk. Not anymore. The Bommai government has taken steps with the hike in reservation. I believe this chunk is fragmented between BJP and Congress now. At the end of the day it is all about grassroots communication of each of the parties. He who communicates best, wins the love of these voters."

Veerashaiva-Lingayat meet to help Cong prove it is with community

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI @ Bengaluru

AS the separate religion status to Lingayats and Veerashaivas was one of the major factors that adversely affected Congress' prospects in 2018, community leaders from within the party are trying to help the party overcome the blemish and help win the 2023 Assembly polls.

At the all-India Veershaiva Lingayat Mahasabha convention, slated to be held in Davanagere in the last week of December 2022, a resolution will be passed asking the Centre to grant a separate religion status for both communities together as Veerashaiva-Lingayats. The conference is being held under the presidentship of Mahasabha national president Shamanuru Shivashankarappa, who is a senior Congress leader and Davanagere South MLA.

Former minister MB Patil, who had allegedly tried but failed to get a separate religion status only for Lingayats (excluding Veerashaivas), is also likely to be projected as the community's big leader at the convention. In 2017-18, when Siddaramaiah was chief minister, the separate religion issue broke out and the communities thought that Shamanur and Patil were trying to divide them.

But at the conference, the two leaders will share the stage to dispel the thinking that they are working at cross purposes, party sources said. "Patil will be our chief guest. His grandfather Shirasangi Lingaraja Desai was the first president of a similar convention held in Dharwad in 1904-05," said Mahasabha General Secretary Nataraj Sagaranahalli.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will be the chief guest at the event that will be attended by all party leaders from the community. No BJP high command leaders will be invited. "Certainly things will get neutralised for Congress as it is not averse to Veershaiva Lingayats and it is likely to help party candidates in the 2023 assembly polls," said Prasannakumar, a Congress leader.

Siddu slams BJP over rowdy-sheeters

MYSURU: As BJP is facing severe criticism over its two MPs from Bengaluru allegedly attending an event where a rowdy-sheeter too was present, CLP leader Siddaramaiah questioned the ruling party about its integrity. Speaking to reporters during his visit to KR Pete on Tuesday, the former chief minister said that even after knowing that Silent Sunil is a wanted criminal, two MPs of the BJP are often seen with him and have also shared the stage with him. "He is a rowdy facing a search warrant. What message will it send to the people if you share the stage with them ? If we question, they try to point a fingers at us," he said. He further criticised the BJP for allegedly associating with rowdy 'Fighter' Ravi, claiming, "His name suggests his personality. They are doing this to create unrest and violence in the society."

BJP disapproves of its MPs sharing stage with rowdy-sheeter

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE BJP disapproved of its MPs from Bengaluru — PC Mohan and Tejasvi Surya — sharing dais with a history-sheeter, even as leaders from the Ruling and Opposition parties continue to spar over the issue.

Taking strong exception to its leaders sharing the stage with history-sheeter 'Silent' Sunil, who is facing several cases, BJP state unit president Nalin Kumar Kateel said he is getting information about the programme and also seeking an explanation from the leaders, who attended the programme.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, however, hit back at the Congress leaders asking them how many history-sheeters are there in their party. Bommai also made it clear that the BJP will not encourage any history- sheeter and Sunil will not be inducted into the party.

The BJP leaders attended a blood donation camp organised by Sunil, drawing sharp criticism from the Congress and even from some leaders of the Ruling party. This also fuelled speculation over Sunil joining politics.

Kateel said the party will not tolerate anyone with a "criminal background, terrorists and extremists". The party leaders must ensure that such incidents do not recur and all developments should be brought to the party's notice, Kateel cautioned his party leaders.

Congress, however, questioned BJP about what message it is trying to convey to society. "This has hit the morale of the police department and created a situation that police have to salute history-sheeters. Police who had recently raided 'Silent' Sunil have now become silent," the Congress stated. The BJP is inducting history-sheeters into the party due to fear of losing elections, the Congress added.

Hitting back at the Opposition, BJP said many Congress leaders are facing cases and a leader who went to Tihar jail is its state unit president. BJP MLC and party state general secretary N Ravi Kumar said they will release a list of Congress leaders with "goonda culture."

Meanwhile, Sunil, who has 17 cases against him, is not absconding, say police.

HDK loyalists quit JDS in protest against ticket for GTD

K SHIVA KUMAR @Mysuru

EVEN as JDS senior leader HD Kumaraswamy has embarked on the Pancharatna Yatra to mobilise support ahead of the Assembly elections, the party in Mysuru and Chamundeshwari constituency received a major jolt with senior party functionaries and prominent leaders resigning from the party's primary membership in protest against party's rebel MLA GT Devegowda's leadership.

The resigned rebel leaders and workers, who are said to be not happy with the party's decision to let Devegowda contest from the Chamundeshwari constituency, held a show of strength, Swabhimana Karyakartara Sabhe, and vowed to defeat the MLA in the coming Assembly election. They lashed out at Devegowda for revolting against the party leadership earlier and dissociating with party workers for the last two years. Speakers at the meeting accused him of hobnobbing with both Congress and BJP, seeking Assembly tickets for him and his son Harish Gowda. "As he did not get any assurance from both parties, he shed crocodile tears in front of party supremo HD Deve Gowda and returned to the party," they alleged.

Former zilla panchayat president and Mysuru taluk JDS former president Beeregundi Basavanna said he had earlier worked for Devegowda's victory, but despite that the MLA insulted him in public after becoming a minister in the previous JDS-Congress coalition government. He said Devegowda worked against party candidates in previous elections, and recalled that Kumaraswamy had assured party leaders from Mysuru that one among them will be the party candidate from Chamundeshwari. But now Devegowda has been picked for the seat and they feel letdown, he added.

Activists want ban non-Hindu traders at Anjanadri

AMIT S UPADHYE @ Koppal

THE famous hill shrine of Anjanadri Hills in Koppal district, the birthplace of Lord Hanuman, has become the latest spot of friction as Hindu activists have demanded that non-Hindu traders be banned from conducting business here. The administration is yet to take a decision, but pro-Hindu organisations have submitted several memorandums.

Posters asking temple authorities to ban non-Hindu traders have come up near Anjanadri shrine and this is the second consecutive year that these organisations are demanding that only Hindu families put up stalls at the shrine. They have pointed out a clause in the Karnataka Endowment Act that bans non-Hindu traders from doing business on temple premises. "We are demanding what is in the law books. Recent arrests and investigations have proved that Hindu temples have been under the radar of anti-national elements. It is even more important that non-Hindu traders be banned from doing business at all Hindu shrines in the state. We are demanding it at Anjandari too," said Shrikanth, a leader from Hindu Jagran Vedike in Gangavathi.

"A large number of devotees, who wear Hanuman Mala annually, are expected to visit the shrine over the next few weeks. A huge amount of flowers are sold at the shrine and most of the traders are non-Hindus. If a ban is imposed on non-Hindu traders, the price of flowers and garlands may increase," said a non-Hindu trader from Anjanadri.

Some local non-Hindu vendors are said to have decided to down the shutters till the protest dies down. Some Muslim traders are now planning to put up their stalls away from the shrine. "Similar efforts were made last year, but they did not work. It's not possible to divide business around any temple based on religion. There are many traders from non-Hindu communities here," said a social activist from Koppal.

Siddaramaiah bats for collegium to appoint election commissioners

SHIVAMOGGA: Leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah on Tuesday said a collegium-like system is needed for the appointment of election commissioners. Addressing reporters, he said the collegium should have representatives from ruling and opposition parties. He said the Supreme Court has questioned the "lightning speed" at which IAS officer Arun Goel was appointed election commissioner last week by the Centre. "The Election Commission of India is an independent constitutional body, which should conduct free and fair elections. I suggest that a collegium be constituted with representatives from ruling and opposition parties as members. This will benefit the country," he said. ENS

A day after raids, Odisha cops book BJP MLA for violence

MAYANK BHUSAN PANI @Bargarh

AS confrontation between Bharatiya Janata Party and Biju Janata Dal intensified a day after the tit-for-tat raids, police booked BJP's Sundargarh MLA Kusum Tete for assaulting GST officials during their search operation on Monday.

Two FIRs were registered in this connection with Padampur and Paikmal police stations.

The FIR registered at Paikmal named Tete and three others, while the complaint lodged with Padampur was against Sunil Agarwal and 500 to 600 other people.

The BJP legislator was accused of assault, abuse and obstruction of on-duty government servants. Apart from her, the FIR named Gobardhan Agrawal, his wife Taramani Devi and his son Nikhil.

Charges of molestation under Section 354 were also pressed in the two FIRs as one of the search party members was a woman officer.

According to complainant Ashish Kumar Dash, a State Tax Officer, CT and GST Enforcement Unit in Jharsuguda, he along with a team had gone to the house of Gobardhan for a search as authorised by the Joint Commissioner (CT and GST), Enforcement Range, Sambalpur.

A spot summon was issued to Taramani Devi assuring her of presence of a lady GST officer and constable throughout the raid. The complaint said Taramani Devi did not give written consent or sign any authorisation letter but offered a verbal consent to begin the search. During the raid, the team managed to seize 22 documents.

While the search underway, Gobardhan's son along with a group of people including MLA Tete and her supporters allegedly barged into premises and obstructed the operation. Gobardhan too appeared from the group and the crowd heckled the GST team and started abusing them.

Gobardhan had come under State GST raids on Monday hours after Income Tax officials searched three BJD associates in Padampur town.

The complaint stated some miscreants forcibly took away the seized documents. Police reached the spot and rescued GST officials but the documents could not be recovered.

Tete, however, rubbished the charges and said she had gone there to ascertain whether the search party was genuine and asked them for ID cards. Besides, Taramani Devi is an aged woman and heart patient too but the officers did not allow her to contact her husband or son, she said.

Police tow a car with YSRTP chief YS Sharmila in Hyderabad on Tuesday

JAGAN'S SISTER SITS INSIDE AS TS COPS TOW AWAY CAR

Hyderabad: High political drama ensued in the State capital on Tuesday when the tussle between YSRTP and the ruling TRS resulted in YSRTP chief and sister of AP CM Jagan Mohan Reddy's sister YS Sharmila's arrest under several charges including insulting the modesty of a woman and the theft of a sub-inspector's cellphone. Sharmila's mother YS Vijayamma was kept under house arrest when she tried to step out in support of her daughter. Later in the night, Sharmila was granted bail by the Nampally court. In the morning, when Sharmila and her supporters set out to lay siege to Pragathi Bhavan, Hyderabad police towed the car being driven by Sharmila while she and a few others were still on board, from Raj Bhavan Road to SR Nagar police station. Sharmila said on Monday, during her leg of the Praja Prasthanam Padayatra in Narsampet, TRS workers set on fire a bus which was part of her convoy. They also vandalised a car as well. Speaking to the media, Sharmila said she wanted to show the vehicles damaged by TRS "goondas" to the Chief Minister. She sarcastically wondered if BRS stood for 'Bandipotla Rashtra Samithi'. ENS

MYSTERY SHROUDS DEATH OF KREDL PROJECT DIRECTOR

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

KARNATAKA Renewable Energy Development Limited (KREDL) project director D K Dinesh Kumar was found dead under mysterious circumstances at his residence in Bogadi II Stage in Mysuru on Monday. While Dinesh's relatives suspect that it is a case of murder, the initial post-mortem report states the death was due to a heart attack. Kumar (50), a native of Doddapalya village in Srirangapatna taluk, was posted in Bengaluru.

Police said that as per Dinesh's wife Asha's statement, she along with her husband and 12-year-old son had dinner Sunday night and went to sleep. When she and her son woke up on Monday morning, they found Dinesh in an unconscious state, following which they too fell unconscious. The domestic help rushed the three to nearby Kamakshi Hospital where the doctors declared Dinesh brought dead. Asha and her son were later shifted to Suyog Hospital where they are undergoing treatment.

Police said injury marks were found on Dinesh's body which had bloated and there was blood oozing out from his mouth. The police who examined the body said that Dinesh died about two days ago.

Howevery, Dinesh's maternal uncle H M Narayana, a resident of Mandya, has lodged a complaint with Saraswathipuram police station claiming that Dinesh has been murdered and demanded that Dinesh's wife and servants be questioned.

Dinesh had earlier served at KREDL in Mysuru. He had also served as Honorary Secretary of The Institution of Engineers (India) Mysuru.

Mysuru Police Commissioner B Ramesh told TNIE that the post-mortem done at MMCRI mortuary says there was 80% blockage in Dinesh's arteries which led to a heart attack. "Viscera has been collected and sent to the Forensic Science Lab for examination to find out the cause of death and the report is expected in a few days," he said. Based on preliminary investigation, the police have registered a case of unnatural death.

Global TV channels should broadcast in Kannada: Minister

Bengaluru: Kannada and Culture Minister V Sunil Kumar has requested Union Minister for Information and Broadcasting Anurag Thakur to ensure that global knowledge-based television channels like Animal Planet, BBC Earth and NatGeo Wild broadcast programmes in Kannada language. In a letter dated November 25, which was made public on Tuesday, Kumar stated that the channels broadcast programmes in Hindi, Tamil and Telugu. The letter said, "Kannadigas are being deprived of enjoying the prime knowledge/infotainment channels as they are not dubbed in Kannada. Keeping in view of the demand of Kannadigas, the request is to convince the concerned to dub these marquee TV channels in Kannada language." ENS

HC quashes IT notice to Embassy Group chairman

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has quashed an assessment notice issued by the Income Tax Department to Jitendra Virwani, Chairman and Managing Director of Embassy Group, under the Black Money (Undisclosed Foreign Income and Assets) and Imposition of Tax Act, saying that the impugned notice requires re-examination by the authorities.

A division bench of Justice PS Dinesh Kumar and Justice MG Uma quashed the notice dated August 11, 2021, issued by the Joint Commissioner of Income Tax while allowing the appeal filed by Virwani challenging the order dated July 22, 2022, passed by the single judge, who dismissed the petition against the notice while reserving liberty to take appropriate defence before the assessing officer.

Modifying the single judge's order, the division bench reserved the liberty to the Income Tax Department to issue fresh notice, if so advised, in accordance with law after reconsideration concerning the order passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal (ITAT) on July 30, 2021.

"The authority under the Act has alleged several transactions listed therein as illegal transactions. This court cannot examine all allegations/transactions in this proceeding. But the two transactions examined by us clearly show that Income Tax Department has sent information without proper verification and the authorities under the BM Act have acted mechanically and sent the impugned notice without application of mind," the court observed.

STOP STEREOTYPING, TERRORISM BELONGS TO NO RELIGION

Last week, a professor from the reputed Manipal Institute of Technology called an engineering student from a minority community, 'Ajmal Kasab', the 26/11 terrorist. It reveals how stereotyping people is so deeply embedded in our mindset. The video of the incident, which occurred during class, went viral, showing the student boldly arguing with the professor against being referred to by a terrorist's name just because he is a Muslim. The seemingly casual apology from the professor notwithstanding, the student later downplayed the incident. But Manipal Academy of Higher Education (MAHE) placed the professor under suspension pending an inquiry.

This is reminiscent of another incident that took place during a South Africa-Sri Lanka test match on August 7, 2006, in which late Australian cricketer-turned-commentator Dean Jones had referred to South African Muslim player Hashim Amla (with a beard typically grown by adult male Muslims as per Sunnah, the Prophet's way) as a 'terrorist' after the latter had taken a catch to dismiss a Sri Lankan batsman. Jones' contract with the TV channel on which he was commentating was terminated despite his apologies.

Apologies, however sincerely expressed, may appear superficial in these cases. Stereotyping cannot be dismissed as an isolated case. It can have an adverse impact in a multi-religious and diverse society like the one existing in India. Acts of terror belong to no religion. Religions denounce them. A vast majority of people, whichever religion they belong to, have no links with such acts nor with any kind of crime. But a stereotypical mindset targeting them because they belong to a religion from which some members resort to acts of terror is most unjust and discriminatory. It is akin to convicting an innocent person. We have no right to prejudge people and address them or refer to them as 'terrorists' when they are not even remotely linked to it.

We urgently need a change in mindset. The need of the hour is for people to understand each other's religious values, practices and beliefs. Some mosques in Bengaluru are already showing the way. They have opened their doors for non-Muslims to enter and understand Islam through a programme called Masjid Darshan. It could be a beginning to understanding Muslims and Islam. Hopefully, stereotyping Muslims as 'terrorists' would soon be a thing of the past.

CLOSER MONITORING FOR ROAD DEVELOPMENT

It is commendable that the Union government has woken up and shortlisted 235 critical road projects under its 'Gati Shakti' division for close monitoring and early completion. The Gati Shakti Master Plan, we may recall, was launched last year in October to integrate multi-modal connectivity plans of 16 ministries like Railways, Defence and Shipping to speed up projects and synchronise logistics. Without saying it upfront, the Central government is concerned that important road infrastructure projects have been crawling under the watch of the Ministry of Road Transport and Highways (MoRTH). Of the 235 road projects faltering, 168 are of the defence ministry.

There are clear indicators of the slowdown. Compared to the oft-repeated target of constructing 12,000 kilometres of roads every year, we have achieved only 3,559 km in the first half of this fiscal up to September. After notching 10,237 km of roads in 2019–20, the lockdown ironically allowed the construction agencies to achieve a record 13,327 km of highways, built at 37 km per day during 2020–21, the first year of the pandemic. To now achieve 12,000 km per year, 50 km of the road would have to be constructed daily, which seems a near impossibility.

The development of road transportation cannot be underestimated. India has nearly 6.5 million kilometres of roadways—the second highest in the world after the United States. Roads transport 64.5% of all goods in the country, and 90% of India's passenger traffic uses the road network to commute. As much as 70% of the road network is in rural areas. Roads, therefore, provide crucial infrastructure connecting people and transporting goods, which directly impacts the economy's growth.

It is no wonder that road construction is high on the government's priority, with nearly ₹2 lakh crore allocated to MoRTH in the 2022–23 Union budget. But the problem is not so much the funds as the poor implementation and the lack of monitoring. The need to take the 235 road projects under the Gati Shakti umbrella amply illustrates this. Good monitoring can also prevent the huge leakage of funds, which have become synonymous with PWD-executed road projects. There is also a need to monitor and repair the vast network of roads in rural areas and towns, which are potholed, and an apology for transport avenues. India lives not so much on its highways as along these thin slivers of connectivity.

QUICK TAKE

A MEATY PROPOSITION

Welcome the Yak to the dinner table. Food Safety and Standards Authority of India is okay with the Himalayan Yak getting a food animal tag. If Yak meat and milk sell, highlanders will see the economic sense in rearing them and stem their reducing population. The meat is leaner and tastier than similar meats. But is it the right pitch in India politically surcharged over consumption of ungulate flesh? Even otherwise, it'll take time for public habits to let Yak overtake traditional meats. A Yak patty also needs to compete with meat-like non-meat stuff popular as trendy food these days.

The question is, how long will representation be denied to the vast majority of social groups in the country

DECODING EWS AND THE MALAISE OF ONE REPRESENTING ALL

DR G MOHAN GOPAL

Former Director of the National Judicial Academy & former V-C of National Law School, Bangalore. Currently Advocate, Supreme Court of India

SOUMYADIP SINHA

That the forward classes in India are against reservation is an entirely spurious claim. They are not only not against reservation, they love it. The forward classes eagerly gobble up a whole slew of reservations—women's reservations, sports reservations, domiciliary reservations, reservations for children of Central government employees in Kendriya Vidyalayas and other institutions, and now EWS, to cite a few examples. They have no complaint that the reservations they get destroy merit nor do they demand that their reservations have a time limit. Reservation is part of the cultural DNA of the forward classes—what is Chaturvarnya, if not a massive system of reservation in which public and private employment and education (along with access to all rights of citizenship and all facets of life) are reserved for specific "upper" castes by birth while other "lower" castes are excluded? Reservation is the source of power and dominance of the forward classes.

Forward classes are only against one type of reservation—reservation in public employment, education and the legislature in favour of OBC, SC and ST. It threatens and weakens oligarchic control of the power of forward classes.

For the same reason, however, due representation in public employment, education and the legislature has been a central demand of OBC, SC and ST for over a century, starting with the 19th-century anti-Brahmin movements for representation in Madras, Mysore, Travancore and Maharashtra. Dr B R Ambedkar said to the first Round Table Conference on January 19, 1931, "I have a mandate, and that is, while not opposing responsible government, to see that no responsible government was established unless it was at the same time accompanied by a truly representative government. … I belong to that class which takes its stand on democracy and which seeks to destroy monopoly in every shape and form. Our aim is to realise in practice our ideal of one man, one value in all walks of life, political, economic and social. It is because representative government is one means to that end that the Depressed Classes attach to it so great a value, and it is because of its value to us that I have urged upon you the necessity of making your declaration subject to its fulfilment."

Addressing the Minorities Committee at the Round Table Conference on September 28, 1931, Dr Ambedkar said, "Should the British make [the transfer of power to Indians], that transfer will be accompanied by such provisions that the power shall not fall into the hands of a clique, into the hands of an oligarchy, or into the hands of a group of people, whether Muhammadans or Hindus; but that that solution shall be such that the power shall be shared by all communities in their respective proportions."

The demand for separate electorates and reservation in the executive and judiciary for unrepresented classes stems from the demand for representative government. It is also a rejection of the claim of the forward classes that they will represent all people, denying the right and opportunity of any backward class group to self-representation.

It is this struggle for representation that wrote a unique provision into the original 1950 Constitution as Article 16(4), recognising the fundamental right of every "class of citizens" to adequate representation in the services under the State. And to the reservation of seats for it if there was no adequate representation.

Shorn of its false and misleading rhetoric, what the 103rd amendment has done is to block off a whopping 10% of Indian public employment and 10% of all Indian education, public and private, from democratic representation and establish it as a representation-free, diversity-proof, caste apartheid, "upper" castes only, no "lower" castes allowed" space. This caste apartheid space is in direct conflict with the democratic character and identity of the Constitution. It's an incendiary device planted by the oligarchy inside the Equality Code of the Constitution to blow up the Constitution's edifice of equality. The entrenchment of the oligarchy will seriously damage India's development prospects by blocking India's ability to become a vibrant, plural, diverse, innovative and democratic economy.

EWS, and the larger demand to end representation-enhancing reservation for unrepresented groups and replace it with anti-representation reservation based only on the financial condition of individuals, counters the democratic demand of the unrepresented classes for self-representation and protects the claim of the forward class that they alone will represent all Indians—reminiscent of the insistence of Gandhiji that he alone will represent all Indians including the Oppressed Classes.

EWS has been falsely advertised as an "economic" reservation. It is not an economic reservation. To be eligible for EWS, a person must be a member of a socially and educationally forward class, subject to a creamy layer cut-off. Membership of the forward class by birth is the sole criterion for EWS. EWS is, therefore, actually social reservation.

OBC reservation has been falsely advertised as a "caste" reservation. It is not a caste reservation. To be eligible for OBC reservation, a person must be a member of a backward class, subject to a creamy layer cut-off. Inclusion as a backward class requires compliance with over 15 secular criteria on the social, economic, educational and political representation status of the class.

Backward classes are, therefore, open to all varnas, jaatis, religions and regions which are marginalised and unrepresented according to secular criteria. Accordingly, for example, Brahmin communities are in the backward classes, and the Supreme Court has made transgender a Backward Class. OBC reservation is the real economic (as against financial) reservation.

Reservation is a tool for representation. The century-old struggle is not for reservation; it is for representation. The question is, how long will representation be denied to the vast majority of social groups in the country? How long will the oligarchs insist on representing us all?

The challenge—which the majority judgments of the Supreme Court unfortunately failed to grasp—is to accept the democratic right of every unrepresented community to self-representation and give up insistence that the forward classes alone will represent everyone's interest, to end the oligarchy and establish a representative state as the foundation of democracy and development.

INDIA WELL-PLACED TO MEDIATE IN UKRAINE WAR

E D MATHEW

Former UN spokesperson

The very first chapter of the United Nations Charter declares state sovereignty to be inviolable. Yet, for nine months now, the Security Council has failed to do anything to stop the violation of Ukraine's territorial integrity by Russia, one of its permanent members. The protracted Ukraine-Russia conflict has shaken the very foundations of multilateral diplomacy and has shown us the limitations of the existing international system.

With many in Europe and the United States beginning to wonder how the war will end, it now seems that perhaps only an individual country or a small group of countries—not the UN—can mediate an end to Europe's worst war in decades.

The war, in its ninth month, is worsening. According to a Pentagon assessment, over 200,000 soldiers have been killed or injured—roughly equal on both sides. (Ukraine disputes the numbers but has released no casualties for its troops). Some 40,000 Ukrainian civilians have also died or been injured, and over 30 million have been forced to flee their homes.

The fast-approaching European winter will be hellish for ordinary Ukrainians with Russia deliberately attacking Ukraine's electricity grid and heating plants. Russia hopes the unforgiving weather will sap Ukrainians' will to fight. Moscow is also trying to choke off energy supplies to Europe to turn domestic public opinion against supporting Ukraine.

The US military and NATO are providing Ukraine with winter supplies and military equipment, including modern air defence systems. Russia, too, is bringing in reinforcements with the recently enlisted fighters joining the battle. But harsh weather will affect both sides and will reduce the intensity of the fighting. By the time the European winter begins to ease by the end of February, the war would have completed a year, making it the largest conventional military attack on European soil since World War II.

Since the beginning of the war, most of the military, financial and humanitarian support to Ukraine has been provided by the US. Amidst the economic consequences, such as the high energy prices taking a toll on ordinary Americans, recent polling shows waning domestic support for the war. With the Republicans on track for a majority in the House of Representatives following the midterm polls, there is fear in Washington that support for Ukraine will decline drastically.

Amidst signs of war fatigue setting in, there is palpable urgency to bring the war to a negotiated settlement. Recent reports reveal that US officials have privately encouraged Ukraine to signal an openness to talk with Russia. Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said he was open to "genuine" negotiations with Russia but demanded the full restoration of his country's borders. He has also called for compensation for the attacks and punishments for those responsible for alleged war crimes, conditions Russia may not be willing to concede.

AP

Although India has abstained from most UN resolutions damning Russia, New Delhi has also strived to maintain good relations with Ukraine. It has even mildly rebuked Russia for the invasion

Meanwhile, both Washington and Moscow have been discreetly engaging with each other. US national security adviser Jake Sullivan reportedly recently held confidential talks about the war with top Kremlin officials.

Analysts believe that a window for negotiations may open if the fighting reaches a stalemate amidst the winter woes—with the energy crisis making life unbearable in Ukraine and across Europe and a recession looming. That offers an opportunity for a country or a small group of countries to step into a peace broking role.

India is one of two hosts emerging as likely peace brokers. The other is a group of countries that includes India, Israel and the United Arab Emirates. All these countries, members of the 'minilateralist' I2U2 bloc, enjoy good relations with Russia and Ukraine and are also friendly with the US.

India, having adopted a neutral stance from the beginning of the war, seems well-suited to mediate between Russia and Ukraine. Although India has abstained from most UN resolutions damning Russia, New Delhi has also strived to maintain good relations with Ukraine. It has even mildly rebuked Russia for the invasion.

Russian President Vladimir Putin recently praised India's independent foreign policy. Putin enjoyed a good rapport with Prime Minister Narendra Modi and highlighted India's growing role in global affairs.

"Diplomats and foreign-policy experts are watching closely to see if India can use its unique leverage as one of the world's largest countries that is a friend to both East and West to press Russia to end its war in Ukraine," a recent report in The New York Times said. "Officials within the Indian government have already been discussing what role India might play in peacemaking efforts when the time is right," it added.

At a recent meeting in Moscow with his Russian counterpart, India's External Affairs minister S Jaishankar said that India strongly advocates "a return to dialogue and diplomacy" between the two estranged neighbours. "This is not an era of war," Jaishankar said, echoing Modi's words to Putin in September during a bilateral meeting on the sidelines of the Shanghai Cooperation Organisation summit.

"Peacemaking could carve a more prominent place for India in the global order and possibly bring it closer to a long-sought prize of a fairer power distribution—a permanent seat on the United Nations Security Council," added the NYT report.

As the world's largest democracy, however flawed it may be, and a top troop-contributor to UN peacekeeping, India is uniquely placed to play the role of an intermediary between Ukraine and Russia. Now, India also wields the presidency of G-20, the world's most influential bloc. Whether New Delhi is willing to pick up the mediator's gauntlet is anybody's guess.

Usha and IOA's future

It is good news for Indian sports lovers that Track Queen P T Usha will be the first woman President of IOA. It is a welcome sign that all the members are under 70. The new team with Usha at the helm will encourage real talent and stay away from politics and nepotism.

HC on Vizhinjam

Apropos of Why prohibitory orders are not clamped in Vizhinjam, asks HC (Nov 29). There is a great deal of wisdom and relevance on the part of the HC in questioning the state government as to why tough measures were not initiated. Initially, the government passively viewed the public gathering and protests against the Vizhinjam Port Project. This ultimately escalated and snowballed into what it is now.

Tax evasion

Apropos of Challenges in casting the tax net wider (Nov 28). Your point that low per capita income is the basic reason for India's smaller taxpayer base is good. The question is how to bring evaders into the tax net because not doing so is a great injustice towards honest taxpayers. It is not that the government is not aware of the loopholes available to the evaders. It resorts to using only soft options.

No silver lining

By recalling the staff deployed for the Silver Line project, the LDF government of Kerala has at last put the project on the back burner. CM Pinarayi Vijayan has been adamant that the state will implement the project at any cost. There is ample indication from the Centre that it doesn't find the project feasible. But it should end this suspense by communicating a formal "no" to the state at the earliest.

India must take stand

It is time for India to take a direct stand on the Russian-Ukraine war. It has long ceased to be a confrontation only between two militaries. No war can be won between an invading army and the civilian population. The issue is not about taking sides but about standing on the side of humanity and values.

NSA Ajit Doval and Indonesian ulema at conference in New Delhi on Tuesday | TWITTER

ISIS-inspired terror key threat, ulema can help fight menace, says Doval

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

EMPHASISING that cross-border and ISIS-inspired terrorism continues to pose a threat, National Security Advisor Ajit Doval said on Tuesday that ulemas (Muslim scholars) have a "vital role" to play in countering radicalisation and extremism by propagating progressive ideas and thought.

"ISIS-inspired individuals spread terror. The ulema can play an important role in Islamic society by preaching the right perspective of Islam which doesn't propagate terror. Both India and Indonesian scholars can get together in promoting tolerance and harmony which will counter radicalisation," said Doval. He was speaking at a conference at India Islamic Culture Centre, where it was emphasised by the speakers that ulema can foster culture of interfaith peace and social harmony in India and Indonesia.

> The ulema can play an important role in Islamic society by preaching the right perspective of Islam which doesn't propagate terror
>
> Ajit Doval, National Security Advisor

"As you all are aware, both our countries have been victims of terrorism and separatism. While we have overcome the challenges of terrorisim to a considerable extent, the phenomenon of cross-border ISI sponsored terrorism continues to pose a threat," he added.

Doval also said that the Holy Quran itself teaches that killing one person is like killing all humanity and saving one is akin to saving the whole humanity. "Islam ordains that the most excellent form of Jihad is 'Jihad Afzal' — that is, Jihad against one's senses or ego and not against innocent civilians," he said.

Indonesia's NSA, Mohammed Mahfud MD, had led a 25-member delegation of literally religious scholars to attend this conference in India. Out of 25, three were from different faiths, including a Hindu and a Christian.

"When Doval visited Jakarta in March this year, he had discussed this with me. This will provide an opportunity for the ulema from Indonesia and India to help foster peace and harmony among various faiths. There should be peaceful coexistence and tolerance," said Mahfud MD.

The two NSAs agreed on the fact that religion was being misused and radicalisation and extremism was not justified on any ground. "All of us need to raise our voices against distortion of religion. India and Indonesia have the largest Muslim population. Islam went from Kerala, Gujarat and Bengal to Indonesia," Doval added.

We can't remain agnostic to technology: Jaishankar

'Broader context of globalisation is about economy, mobility & tech'

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

EXTERNAL Affairs Minister S Jaishankar on Tuesday said the rise of India was deeply linked with the rise of Indian technology and the country cannot remain agnostic to the developments in the sector that has acquired strong political connotation.

"The broader context of globalisation is about economy, technology and mobility. The real debate today is between collaborative globalisation and one dominated by a few," said Jaishankar while speaking at the Global Technology Summit 2022 organised by the Carnegie India.

He also stressed that the Westphalian model of international relations was over and that it was important today to assess where the data was going. "In the last two years, we have woken up to the fact that where does our data reside, who processes (it), who harvests our data, what do they do with it? I think that's a very, very key question. I think the quality of partners and sociology of partners is a very important point," he said.

Jaishankar also said that when it came to technology, "trust and transparency" had become key issues.

"On the digital side, I think, we are going to hear more and more (about) the concept of trusted geographies. So, the moment you start talking about trusted geographies, the geopolitical connotation of that is very clear," he added.

In today's world, technology was a strategic issue, says the EAM, adding that big players are going to consciously try to become technologically more capable. That is going to be key for global rebalancing.

Regarding banning certain apps (without naming China), Jaishankar said was due to "national security" interests of the country.

"Our actions regarding apps in 2020 was actually driven by the concern of where our data was going. This is no longer a matter of business and economics, it is a matter of national security. So, I would say because everything is being weaponised in this world, I have to change my approach," he added.

Jaishankar also said this was the reason why more focus would be put on trusted partners and trusted geographies.

RICE CRISIS

Procurement of Punjab paddy for Central pool halts

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

PUNJAB is the highest contributor of rice in the Central pool. However, some 4,500 rice mills in the state have stopped functioning, bringing to a halt the procurement of paddy for the Central pool and consumer states.

The Food Corporation of India has pressed the panic button asking the state government to sort out the issue as it could cause disruption in paddy supply under the National Food Security Act (NFSA) and Pradhan Mantri Garib Kalyan Yojana (PMGKY).

A section of Punjab Food and Civil Supplies Department staff has been on an indefinite strike for almost a week following the arrest of two district food and supplies controllers in the ₹2,000-crore food grain transportation scam. The strike has affected around 30,000 artiyas (commission agents) and one lakh labourers and has delayed payment to at least 20% of farmers

With only a day left for procurement, as much as 23,000 lakh metric tonne (LMT) paddy is yet to be procured.

This year 1.82 LMT of paddy has been procured and after milling, 1.21 LMT rice will be available, which is 25% of the total procurement of rice in the country (between 450 and 500 LMT per year).

Talking with this newspaper, Ravinder Singh Cheema, president of Punjab Artiya Association, said the strike has delayed payment to about one lakh labourers, which is about ₹500 crore. Commission payment to 30,000 artiyas, which is in the range of ₹1,000 crore, is pending. At least ₹25,000 transport vehicles too have stopped, thus another ₹700 crore dues are yet to be cleared.

"Paddy milling has completely stopped in 4,500 rice mills in the state. If it is not resumed at the earliest, the losses will mount further. As the winter sets in, paddy would not be milled due to the moisture content. This has to be accounted for," he said.

The FCI has taken up the matter with the Punjab government. "As you are aware that Punjab is the highest contributor of rice and wheat in the Central pool and non-loading of food grains due to the strike will adversely affect the timely availability of sufficient food grain in the consuming regions. It may lead to disruption of supply under NFSA and PMGYA."

The strike may also delay acceptance of custom-milled rice (CMR) by FCI and payment of the state government, the letter added. It said the strike could affect squaring up the cash credit limit account of last year's rabi (wheat) marketing season in Punjab.

BENEFICIARIES OF SUBSIDY MAY BE HIT

Around 16 lakh beneficiaries in Punjab under the National Food Safety Act won't be able to get subsidised wheat. Reason: the Centre is imposing a cut on the total wheat allocated to the state for the third quarter of the ongoing financial year. The Centre has allocated 2.12 lakh metric tonnes (LMT) of wheat for the period between October and December against 2.36 lakh LMT which is required to be distributed to 1.57 crore beneficiaries in the state.

Israeli envoy slams IFFI jury head: 'You abused Indian invitation, trust of hosts'

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

A day after Israeli filmmaker Nadav Lapid criticised Hindi film The Kashmir Files at IFFI, the country's envoy to India Naor Gilon slammed him, saying he should be "ashamed" as he had "abused in the worst way" the Indian invitation to him to chair the panel of judges at the film festival.

"Lapid can feel free to use liberty to sound your criticism of what you dislike in Israel but no need to reflect your frustration on other countries. You will go back to Israel thinking that you are bold and made a statement. We, the representatives of Israel, would stay here. You should see our DM boxes following your "bravery" and what implications it may have on the team under my responsibility," Gilon tweeted.

In an open letter to Nadav, Gilon said that Lapid should be ashamed as he has abused the Indian invitation. "In Indian culture they say that a guest is like God. You have abused in the worst way the Indian invitation to chair the panel of judges at @IFFIGoa as well as the trust, respect and warm hospitality they have bestowed on you," Gilon added.

He also said that India invited the members of Israel entertainment industry to celebrate the love in India towards Fauda and Israel. "I suspect that this is maybe also one of the reasons they invited you as an Israeli and me as the ambassador of Israel. I understand your need in retrospect to "justify" your behaviour but I can't understand why you told afterwards that the minister and I said on stage that there is similarity between our countries because "we fight a similar enemy and reside in a bad neighbourhood," Gilon added.

NADAV LAPID: A NO-HOLDS-BARRED DISSENTER

NAMRATA JOSHI @ New Delhi

THE sharp critique by Israeli filmmaker and International Film Festival of India 2022 jury president Nadav Lapid of the Indian competition entry The Kashmir Files at the festival's closing ceremony in Panjim on Monday evening snowballed into a diplomatic kerfuffle the morning after.

So, who is Lapid? Apart from being a highly acclaimed and significant filmmaking voice, Lapid has also been a no-holds-barred dissenter in his own country, never shy of expressing opinions on issues that he has felt strongly about. Lapid's beliefs and values have illuminated his films. Synonyms (2019), the Berlinale Golden Bear winner, reflected his inner conflicts with homeland Israel, the idea of nationalism, and the complicated issue of his Jewish identity. Ahed's Knee (2021), about a filmmaker negotiating his artistic freedom with the Establishment, the ministry of culture, showed how the personal, the national and the political are deeply intertwined in his DNA, both as an individual and a creator.

Most recently, Lapid, along with the likes of Ari Folman of Waltz with Bashir fame, had been one of the 250 signatories to a letter by the Israeli filmmaking community opposing the Shomron Film Fund, proposed by culture minister Miri Regev, which they felt was all about whitewashing the Palestinian occupation by giving grants to Jewish settlers in the West Bank. They likened it to cultural apartheid.

In all the brouhaha following Lapid's comments, the spotlight has turned on him. The filmmaker has become a popular Indian name in a matter of 24 hours. For cinephiles on the side-lines of the festival, more than the debate on The Kashmir Files as an Indian entry, it has been the choice of Lapid as the head of the jury that has come as a surprise. Did the ministry not know enough about him and his work? Did he fall between the bureaucratic cracks of cinematic ignorance?

Fact-check, accuracy more important than speed of news, says I&B minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AMID call for taking appropriate measures to curtail the phenomenon of fake news, Union Minister of Information and Broadcasting Anurag Thakur on Tuesday said that 'accuracy' is more than important 'speed' and facts should be appropriately verified before presenting them in public domain.

"Presenting authentic information is the prime responsibility of the media and that facts should be properly checked before they are put in the public domain. While speed with which the information is transmitted is important, accuracy is even more important and should be primary in the minds of communicators," said the minister. He was speaking at the opening ceremony of the Asia-Pacific Broadcasting (ABU) Union General Assembly 2022 in the national capital.

> Presenting authentic information is the prime responsibility of the media and that facts should be properly checked before they are put in the public domain
>
> Anurag Thakur, I&B Minister

With the spread of social media, fake news has also proliferated, Thakur added.

The minister further informed that the Government promptly established the Fact Check Unit in the Press Information Bureau to counter unverified claims and present truth to the people.

He also underlined that for responsible media organisations maintaining public trust should be the highest guiding principle.

Thakur credited public broadcasters Doordarshan and All India Radio (AIR) for having always stood by the truth and having won people's trust for their truthful reporting.

The minister stated that the media's role during the time of crisis becomes critical as it directly concerns saving lives adding that media is at the core of national disaster management plans.

Thakur also credited the media for coming to the aid of people stuck at home during the COVID-19 pandemic, saying it was media which connected people with the outside world.

India, US armies share battle skills at joint drill

MAYANK SINGH @ Auli, Joshimath

THE ongoing joint India US exercise Yudh Abhyas reached the validation stage on Tuesday. Both the armies shared ground application methods, operational tactics and military philosophy.

The joint exercise had started with the acclimatisation process at Auli Foreign Training Node in Uttarakhand on November 15. It will last till December 2.

Brigadier Pankaj Verma, Indian contingent exercise director, said, "We share best practices with each other while doing our skill development and we also go on to validate the particular exercises during the field exercise which actually begins tonight."

The Yudh Abhyas is an annual exercise which is conducted between the US and Indian armies.

Brigadier Verma that the aim of the exercise is to learn from each other the best practices, to enhance the TTPs (Tactics, techniques and procedures). "In doing this particular exercise we basically exercise and validate integrated battle groups which are going for various peacekeeping operations under Chapters 6 and 7 of the UN mandate."

Indian and US troops during high altitude joint exercise | SHEKHAR YADAV

India has built the Foreign Training Node at Auli which is 100 km from LAC with China.

Speaking to this newspaper, the US Army Specialist Solonko said, "The beginning of the exercise was tough due to the high altitude but things have become better now."

We are exchanging the best practices and are trying to adopt whatever is best with the Indian Army and also are sharing that which is our strength, added Solonko.

Brig Verma further stated that the HADR has been the main focus of this edition of the exercise. "We have validated our columns for swift deployment which were integrated in nature to reach out to inaccessible areas and help out the needy to extricate from positions which are not reachable due to difficult locations using our skills our combat medicals and off course our logisticians to extricate them to safer places and move them to better tertiary hospitals.

"Besides this, we have also undertaken the command post exercise, the command post exercise deals with the staff engagement between officers and men of both the armies. They spell out a cohesive and mature course of action which can be followed by an integrated battle group to engage into any peacekeeping operations and provide the commanders a mature and very well-informed information so that it can operate in an ambiguous situation."

Kharge takes a swipe at Modi, BJP calls it insult to PM

Two parties intensify war of words ahead of Phase 1 of the Gujarat Assembly elections

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

AS campaigning for the first phase of Gujarat assembly polls involving 89 seats came to an end on Tuesday for voting due on December 1, a war of words between the ruling BJP and Congress erupted over a remark of Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge about PM Narendra Modi.

Addressing a public rally in Ahmedabad's Behrampura on Monday night, Kharge said, "We see your (Modi's) face in corporation elections as well as in Assembly and Lok Sabha elections — everywhere. Do you have 100 heads like Raavan?"

Replying to Kharge's remark, the BJP accused the Congress of insulting the Gujaratis and appealed to voters to "teach the opposition party a lesson."

BJP spokesperson Sambit Patra called on Gujarat voters to cast votes for the "son of the soil" Modi to avenge the insult" in a democratic way.

Of the 89 seats out of the total 182 where polls will be held on December 1, as many as 35 constituencies are spread across the southern districts of Bharuch, Narmada, Tapi, Dang, Surat, Valsad and Navsari. The polling is also due in 48 seats of Saurashtra and six seats of Kutch district.

In 2017, the BJP had managed to win 25 of these 35 seats while the Congress and Bharatiya Tribal Party won eight and two seats, respectively. Of the 14 seats reserved for the STs, the BJP won only five.

While the tribal-dominated areas are still considered BJP's Achilles' heel, urban voters in south Gujarat stood firmly with the party in 2017.

In the first phase, the elections will be held on 48 seats of the Saurashtra zone, considered the centre of power in state politics.

Due to the pro-BJP tilt of Patidar voters in Saurashtra, the party's seats have steadily increased over the last two-and-a-half decades. However, during the Patidar reservation movement, BJP suffered a loss in the 2017 polls. That is why Prime Minister Narendra Modi has given importance to Saurashtra in his Gujarat tour to marginalise the loss in 2022.

The results show that in 2017, out of a total of 48 seats in Saurashtra, the Congress won 28 seats, while BJP won 19.

BJP is worried about 2017 results, which is why it started aggressive campaigning for the last six months. A huge cooperative meeting was held in Amreli district in the presence of Union Home Minister Amit Shah, in Rajkot and Morbi BJP National President JP Nadda held a road show. Prime Minister Narendra Modi also held meetings in Saurashtra, including those in Junagadh and Jam Kandorana, before implementing the model code of conduct.

CLASH OF (TRIBAL) CHRISTIANS

Vyara Assembly seat, reserved for tribals, will see contest between two Christian candidates for the first time in history of Gujarat

Congress has given ticket to its sitting MLA Punabhai Gamit

BJP has for the first time fielded a Christian candidate, Mohan Konkani

VOTERS
40,000, or 20% Christians of the total 2.20 lakh voters in the seat

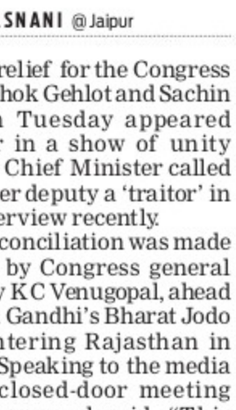
DYNAMICS

- Vyara is considered as a stronghold of the Congress and located in tribal-dominated Tapi district of south Gujarat
- Most of the Christians here are converts from the tribal Gamit, Chaudhary and Konkani communities
- Analysts say the Congress's approach of taking the marginalised sections together has helped it in winning tribal-dominated seats, while the BJP will have to do a rethinking to win in Vyara

1st AND ONLY GUJ TRIBAL CM FROM VYARA

Congress veteran Amarsinh Chaudhary won this seat four times between 1972 and 1985 and became the state's first — and so far the only — tribal chief minister in 1985



BJP fields Christian in tribal constituency held by Congress in south Guj

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ A'bad

THE BJP has ignored the Muslim vote by not fielding a single candidate belonging to the community in the Gujarat assembly election. The party, on the other hand, aims to woo the Christian community. It has given the ticket to one Christian candidate, and fielded two more with the support of the community.

This seat, which has been a stronghold of the Congress for 15 years, is in south Gujarat's Vyara Assembly segment (Tapi district). Mohan Konkani, a Christian, is the BJP candidate from the segment that will go to vote on December 1.

The reserved ST constituency has a large presence of Christians. Congress' Punaji Gamit, a Christian, has been winning the seat since 2007.

Punaji Gamit says Christian voters will again support the Congress. Mohan Konkani initially tried to conceal his identity by claiming that the BJP did not give him the ticket because he is Christian but as he has worked for the party for a long time and held positions in the party organisation.

Konkani said people will vote for the BJP not on the basis of caste but because of the state's development that has been carried out by the party.

"I am the coordinating committee chairman of the Tapi district panchayat, ruled by the BJP, and I was the leader of opposition in the last district panchayat. I have been with the BJP since 1998, and for the past two decades, I have been the sarpanch of my native Kalamkui village," said Konkani.

Christians make up an estimated 40% of the 2.23 lakh registered voters in Vyara, along with 88,000 Gamits, 67,000 Chaudhrys, and the 13,700 Konkanis. All three communities include Christians.

Police commandos get Army training

The Assam police is giving an Army touch to the department. Recently, the Assam government recruited 2,720 people, including more than 300 women, and raised five new commando battalions to strengthen the state's security mechanism. They are now being trained by the Army. The training, being conducted at seven locations in Assam and Meghalaya, will continue for 40 weeks in two phases — basic phase and advanced phase. According to sources, the focus of basic military training will be to make the trainees stronger — mentally and physically.

Dog that helped track rhino poachers dead

Zorba, the dog that helped Assam Forest officials track down more than 60 poachers, died last week due to old age-related ailments. The first dog to be deployed for tracking down poachers, the 12-year-old male Belgian Malinois was a member of 'K9', India's first dog squad to fight wildlife crime. The animal was relieved from duty in December 2019 and kept at the intensive care of K9 unit center of Aaranyak, a leading wildlife NGO. Aaranyak mourned the death. Its CEO and well-known rhino conservation and wildlife crime expert Dr Bibhab Kumar Talukdar said, "Zorba's contribution during his lifetime will always be remembered."

Meghalaya to set up border outposts

In the backdrop of the incident of firing on its border with Assam, Meghalaya has decided to set up police outposts in the sensitive areas. A decision towards this effect was taken at an all-party meeting which Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma chaired. Various NGOs in the state had demanded the setting up of police outposts near the border. Recently, Assam Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma had said the firing incident had nothing to do with border dispute. But both states had claimed the site of incident was within their territory.

17 rifles looted from forest dept outpost

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

UNIDENTIFIED men attacked a forest department outpost in Burhanpur district, Madhya Pradesh and looted 17 service rifles late Monday night. A case of robbery and dacoity has been lodged under IPC sections 395 and 397 and heavy force has been deployed in the area.

The incident happened at the Bakdi outpost of Navra forest area in Nepanagar sub-division of Burhanpur district, where 50-year-old chowkidar, Bhola Barela and his wife Manibai were sleeping.

"Around 20-22 masked men attacked me and my wife as well as a couple who tried to come to our rescue and decamped with 17 rifles of the forest staff," the chowkidar alleged in the FIR registered on Tuesday afternoon at the Nepanagar police station.

Two police parties have been formed to track down the accused and recover the stolen weapons, said Burhanpur SP Rahul Kumar Lodha, who visited the post.

According to officials, teams from the forest department and the police were conducting a drive to remove encroachments and check illegal cutting of trees in the area since the last few days.

'I have been doing tapasya for three months': Rahul offers prayers at Mahakal

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

FOUR days after offering prayers at Omkareshwar Temple in Madhya Pradesh's Khandwa district, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi visited the Mahakal Temple, another jyotirlinga site, in Ujjain on Tuesday.

Addressing a public meeting after performing rituals at the temple, Rahul spoke about the concept of tapasya. "This is a country where tapasvis (hermits) are worshipped. I have been doing tapasya for the last three months," he said, referring to his Bharat Jodo Yatra.

"But my tapasya is too small in front of the real tapasvis — the farmers and workers who do tapasya till the last breath. The real tapasvis are the migrant labourers who were seen in all corners of the country during the pandemic, who work throughout their life," he said.

"But none of them is getting what they should get from the government. The farmers aren't getting fertilisers, or if they get it, it comes at high prices. They don't get the right prices for their produce nor are they getting compensation from insurance companies for damaged crops, despite paying full premium," Rahul said.

Intensifying his attack on the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the Wayanad MP said, "So who is actually getting the phal (fruits) of tapasya? It's two individuals, who do tapasya of Narendra Modi day and night, who are getting whatever they want from the government. Spanning from railways and airports to roads, electricity and water, they are getting whatever they want."

Speaking at the gathering, state Congress chief and former CM Kamal Nath recounted how his government was brought down in 15 months in March 2020. "My elected government was pulled down through a deal. I was the chief minister and I too could have struck a deal, but I decided not to make such deals the identity of MP," Nath said.

Gehlot & Pilot patch up, put up united front before Rahul yatra

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN a big relief for the Congress party, Ashok Gehlot and Sachin Pilot on Tuesday appeared together in a show of unity after the Chief Minister called his former deputy a 'traitor' in a TV interview recently.

The reconciliation was made possible by Congress general secretary KC Venugopal, ahead of Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra entering Rajasthan in 12 days. Speaking to the media after a closed-door meeting here, Venugopal said, "This is Rajasthan Congress. We are all one."

He further added, "We are very much united here. Ashok ji and Sachin ji both already told you that the Congress party is united in Rajasthan. This Yatra is not going to be a short-term event. This election we will fight together and we will win in Rajasthan again and this Yatra will give energy for that. Rahul Gandhi has said that both Gehlot and Pilot are assets for the party."

Talking to the media, Gehlot asserted, "When Rahul Gandhi has said that our leaders are assets, then we are assets... where is the dispute then. There is nothing left to say in this."

Pilot also echoed similar sentiments and said "We all together will strengthen the party. No one can provoke us."

The Gehlot-Pilot joint appearance was imperative for Congress, which is struggling with bad blood between its top two leaders in Rajasthan and Rahul Gandhi is set to begin his yatra in the state.

Venugopal, who negotiated the truce between Gehlot and Pilot, was entrusted the task after the friction between the two leaders went beyond control. According to sources, Venugopal has to ensure that no further difference emerge between the two leaders till Gandhi's yatra is completed.

Venugopal assembled both the leaders and held a meeting of the state leaders on Tuesday. To settle the dispute between the two, a middle way has been found, a formula has been adopted to help both the leaders, said sources.

On leaders making statements against each other despite a party advisory, Venugopal said he has asked for a report on this from the state party chief. "We will take this up separately," he added.

Rahul Gandhi's visit will be used to send the message of keeping Gehlot and Pilot together. The Bharat Jodi Yatra in Rajasthan will start from December 4 in Jhalawar and will cover a distance of about 521 km before it exits from Alwar district.

Bihar govt offer: Leave liquor trade, toddy biz & get ₹1 lakh financial aid

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

IN a bid to dissuade people from selling liquor or toddy, the Bihar Cabinet on Tuesday approved a proposal to provide financial assistance of Rs.1 lakh to those families who abandon liquor and toddy business in the state.

The Cabinet meeting chaired by Chief Minister Nitish Kumar passed a proposal submitted by the registration, prohibition and excise department in which each poor family engaged in illicit liquor or toddy sale will be given financial help to start a new business for their livelihood.

The Cabinet also sanctioned Rs 610 crore for social and economic empowerment of poor people through the government's Jeevika scheme.

Officials said that self-help groups would be engaged in selection of candidates eligible for financial aid. The rural development department has been asked to prepare a detailed report on it.

The decision assumes significance in the wake of violent protests by members of the 'Pasi' community in Patna on Tuesday against the ban on sale of toddy. A procession taken out by them was intercepted by the police as it approached Raj Bhavan. The police had to use force to disperse the protestors who raised anti-government slogans.

Former MP and Jan Adhikar Party leader Rajesh Ranjan alias Pappu Yadav extended his support to the agitation launched by members of the Pasi community.

Bihar came under total prohibition in April 2016.

SOON, PEDAL YOUR WAY TO EXPLORE SRINAGAR

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

SRINAGAR will soon have about 100 cycling points, where people can take bicycles on rent, in a bid to ease traffic congestion in the city. The initiative is part of the smart city project to promote eco-friendly transport in the city. The initiative would also give cyclists a feel of the heritage and culture of Srinagar.

City authorities have collaborated with Bhopal-based startup Chartered Bike for the project. A trial run for this facility was held near Ram Munshi Bagh on Tuesday.

"We received a good response from people, who raised queries about where these cycling points would be set up and how they can park cycles at different points," Mohammad Yasir Shah, an official from Chartered Bike, told this newspaper.

According to Shah, the docking stations would be set up across Srinagar in the coming few weeks, and 6-8 cycles would be available on rent at every location. The bicycles would be fitted with a GPS-tracking system, and the entire booking process, from payment to registration, would be done online.

The ride would be free for the first half an hour, after which ₹5 will be charged for up to one hour. Rs 10 will be charged till two hours, and the fare will increase in slabs till Rs 350 for over eight hours.

"We will not be accepting cash. Everything will be done online," Shah said, adding that over 100 people registered on the website on the first day of the trial run.

The administration would also be setting up tracks for cyclists and pedestrians on the famous Boulevard Road, and on Hazratbal-Nishat Road in Srinagar. Earlier, a similar facility was launched by a local youth, Mohammad Ubaid Nazir, in the city. It is called Cieclo.

Apex court greenlight to relocate metro car depot back to Aarey Colony

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

NOTING that a substantial number of trees have already been cut for the construction of car depot for Metro Line III located at Aarey colony, the Supreme Court on Tuesday refused to stay the Maharashtra government's July 21, 2022 decision to relocate the car depot back to Aarey Colony from Kanjurmarg.

Hours after coming to power, Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde and deputy CM Devendra Fadnavis had overturned the Uddhav Thackarey government's decision to shift the proposed car shed project from Aarey colony. The Thackarey government had in November 2019 announced a stay on the construction of the proposed project and later ordered that the car shed be shifted to Kanjurmarg.

The bench said that the court cannot be oblivious to the serious dislocation which will be caused if public investment that has gone into the project is disregarded.

"We are of the conclusion that the original decision to allow the metro car depot for Metro Line 3 to be located at Aarey to be restored could not be possible at the interim stage to stay the decision... It must be also noted that substantial number of trees pertaining to the area which falls within the segment of car depot and the ramp have already been fell and no further trees were required to be fell," a bench of Chief Justice D Y Chandrachud and Justice P S Narasimha said.

The court also let Mumbai Metro Rail Corporation pursue its application before BMCs Tree Authority for permission to cut 84 trees for construction of Aarey Metro Depot. It asked the authority to consider the plea independently.

Restive students sent home, China eases its control

Amid the protests against zero-Covid policy, China will reduce the impact of lockdowns

Protesters hold up white paper, some with writings commemorating the Urumqi fire during a gathering at the University of Hong Kong in Hong Kong on Tuesday | AP

BEIJING

CHINESE universities sent students home and police fanned out in Beijing and Shanghai to prevent more protests on Tuesday after crowds angered by severe anti-virus restrictions called for leader Xi Jinping to resign in the biggest show of public dissent in decades.

Authorities have eased some controls after demonstrations in at least eight mainland cities and Hong Kong—but showed no sign of backing off their larger 'zero-Covid' strategy that has confined millions of people to their homes.

With police out in force, there was no word of protests on Tuesday in Beijing, Shanghai or other major mainland cities that saw crowds rally over the weekend.

A far smaller group did gather at a university in Hong Kong on Tuesday to protest virus restrictions.

Meanwhile, Beijing's Tsinghua University, where students rallied over the weekend, and other schools in the capital and the southern province of Guangdong said they were protecting students from Covid-19 by sending them home.

About a dozen people gathered at the University of Hong Kong, chanting against virus restrictions and holding up sheets of paper with critical slogans. Most were from the mainland, which has a separate legal system from the Chinese territory of Hong Kong, and some spectators joined in their chants.

The protesters held signs that read, 'Say no to COVID panic' and 'No dictatorship but democracy.' One chanted, "We're not foreign forces but your classmates."

Meanwhile, China said it will take steps to 'minimise' the impact of its draconian Covid lockdowns, amidst the unprecedented public protests against stringent zero-Covid policy that evoked strong support from the UN, the US and other nations.

Seeking to address international concerns, Foreign Ministry spokesman Zhao Lijian said China has been adjusting the zero-Covid policy. Agencies

Court to hear disputes over deportation policy

Washington: THE Supreme Court is taking up a dispute over a blocked Biden administration policy that would prioritise deportation of people in the country illegally who pose the greatest public safety risk. Republican-led states sued and won a nationwide court order that is meant to limit immigration officers' discretion in deciding whom to deport. At the centre of the immigration legal fight is a directive from the Department of Homeland Security that paused deportations unless individuals had committed acts of terrorism, espionage or "egregious threats to public safety." The guidance, issued after Joe Biden became president, updated a Trump-era policy that removed people in the country illegally regardless of criminal history.

Efforts to broaden tax base bearing fruits: Tarun Bajaj

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

OVER the last few years the government has made many attempts to broaden the tax base and in some way the government has succeeded in it.

Last year, the tax collections improved significantly and the central taxes-to-GDP ratio reached 11.5%, which is one of the highest in over a decade, revenue secretary Tarun Bajaj said in an interaction with TNIE.

He reiterated that there is a need to improve the tax-to-GDP ratio considerably, but also admits that 11.5% (tax-to-GDP ratio) will not jump to 14% in one year.

"But we are moving towards that as our GDP grows and per capita income grows, we will see more people paying taxes and our tax-to- GDP ratio would go up," the revenue secretary said.

Tarun Bajaj, whose tenure as revenue secretary is coming to an end on Wednesday, said that the main reason for fewer people paying (income) taxes is lower per capita income in the country.

India's per capita income is $2,200, which is lower than some of the African countries.

The outgoing revenue secretary said that the new income tax regime needs a relook as it has not been able to attract many taxpayers.

"Somebody with an income of ₹7 lakh in the old regime does not have to pay any taxes, but in this regime you have to pay taxes (even at a lower threshold). Who will come into the new regime on his own," says the secretary.

He said that 80% of the taxpayers show income of Rs 7 lakh or less.

Under the old regime, a person whose annual taxable income is ₹5 lakh or less would have to pay no taxes, which necessarily means that someone with ₹7 lakh annual income can go tax free thanks to various deductions allowed. Under the new regime, the threshold is ₹2.5 lakh and no deductions are allowed.

According to Bajaj, one of the changes in the new tax regime could be increasing the threshold from ₹2.5 lakh to say ₹7 lakh.

He also feels the need for rationalising the tax slabs. He says that you cannot increase the slab from 5% to 20%. "It has to be more gradual increase, else there would be bunching at 5%," he said. On the sustainability of high GST collection in recent years, Bajaj expressed his confidence that monthly GST collection trends are sustainable.

New income tax regime needs a relook: Bajaj

Tarun Bajaj, whose tenure as revenue secretary is coming to an end on Wednesday, said said that the new income tax regime needs a relook as it has not been able to attract many taxpayers. He said that the main reason for fewer people paying (income) taxes is lower per capita income in the country.

e-Rupee pilot

- RBI defines CBDC or e-Rupee as legal tender in a digital form
- CBDC can be classified into general purpose or retail(CBDC-R) and wholesale (CBDC-W)
- Retail CBDC is a direct liability of the central bank
- SBI, ICICI Bank, Yes Bank and IDFC First Bank will participate in first pilot for retail digital rupee
- BoB, Union Bank of India, HDFC and Kotak Mahindra Bank will join the pilot subsequently
- The pilot will cover four cities - Mumbai, New Delhi, Bengaluru and Bhubaneswar
- Later, it will be extended to Ahmedabad, Gangtok and Guwahati, among other cities

RBI to launch pilot for retail digital rupee on December 1

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

A month after commencing the first pilot in digital rupee- wholesale segment (e-W) on November 1, 2022, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) will launch the pilot for retail digital Rupee (e-R) on Thursday (December 1).

The central bank on Tuesday announced that the pilot will cover select locations in a closed user group (CUG) comprising participating customers and merchants.

Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) is a digital form of currency notes issued by a central bank. In the concept note on CBDC, the RBI classified CBDC into general purpose or retail (CBDC-R) and wholesale (CBDC-W).

While Retail CBDC will be available for use by all private sector, non-financial consumers and businesses, wholesale CBDC is designed for restricted access to select financial institutions.

Jaya Vaidhyanathan, CEO, BCT Digital said since CBDC provides a regulated alternative to cryptocurrencies in the market, it would lead to more robust and reliable payments, lowering the dependency on cash. "The underpinning technology would make transaction costs low. Being interoperable with other payment systems, it will complement existing techniques like UPI, thus completing the mobile payments ecosystem," the CEO said.

The e-R will be in the form of a digital token that represents legal tender. It would be issued in the same denominations that paper currency and coins are currently issued. It would be distributed through banks.

The RBI said users will be able to transact with e-R through a digital wallet offered by the participating banks and stored on mobile phones or devices. "The e -R will offer features of physical cash like trust, safety and settlement finality. As in the case of cash, it will not earn any interest and can be converted to other forms of money, like deposits with banks," the RBI said.

GeM portal to overtake Amazon, Flipkart by year-end: CEO PK Singh

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE government's e-Marketplace portal (GeM) has processed orders worth ₹1 lakh crore so far this fiscal and is expected to surpass ₹1.8 lakh crore mark by year-end, its CEO PK Singh said on Tuesday.

He stated that the GeM is likely to surpass Amazon and Flipkart by year-end.

"GEM is likely to exceed the current year's target of ₹1.5 lakh crore and supersede Amazon and Flipkart by year-end," Singh said. Cumulatively, according to commerce ministry, the portal has crossed ₹3 lakh crore of gross merchandise value since its inception in 2016. It has over 63,000 government buyer organizations as well as over 54 lakh sellers and service providers offering a wide range of products and services. According to the commerce ministry official, defence ministry, followed by petroleum and gas ministry procured the most from MSMEs through GeM portal. Meanwhile, the GeM is assisting cooperative societies for their registration on the portal and activation of their GeM pool accounts. The cooperative societies will get direct access to over 54 lakh sellers and service providers across the country through this platform.

"Use of GeM by cooperatives will substantially enhance credibility of the cooperatives and complaints of mismanagement of funds will be reduced. This is also expected to enhance the overall "ease of doing business" for cooperatives while providing a larger buyer base for sellers on GeM," Singh added. In addition, GeM is also coordinating with the State Mission Coordinators and District Managers to create awareness among small businessmen in the far flung areas. It has integrated with over 1.5 lakh post offices and and 5.2 lakh village level entrepreneurs via common service centres (CSCs) for last mile outreach and service delivery.

CUTS GDP GROWTH FORECAST FOR 2022 AND 2023

Taiwan's economy is likely to grow more slowly than previously forecast this year and next, the statistics office said on Tuesday, as it also cut its exports outlook due to global inflation, rate rises and China's zero-COVID policy. Taiwan, home to the world's largest contract chip maker TSMC, had benefited over the past two years from soaring demand for tablets, laptops and other electronics to support the work and study from home trend during the COVID-19 pandemic. But demand for those consumer goods is faltering due to lockdowns in Taiwan's largest export market China to control the pandemic, interest rate hikes around the world to crimp soaring inflation, and the impact of the war in Ukraine. Taiwan's gross domestic product (GDP) for 2022 is now expected to be 3.06% higher than last year, the Directorate General of Budget, Accounting and Statistics said, revising down the 3.76% forecast it issued in August. That would mark a slowdown from the 6.45% logged for 2021, which was the fastest growth rate since the economy expanded 10.25% in 2010.

VIETNAM

SMARTPHONE EXPORTS FALL AHEAD OF CHRISTMAS

Vietnam's smartphone production and exports fell in November in the run up to Christmas sales season, according to official data, a new sign the country's largest manufacturer, Samsung Electronics, is adapting to dwindling global demand. The South Korean electronics giant has for years produced about half of its smartphones in Vietnam and accounts for nearly a fifth of the country's overall exports. The fall in output is in line with what industry and government sources as well as Samsung employees have told Reuters that the company had recently cut its smartphone production in Vietnam for a second time this year. It is unclear if the cuts in Vietnam reflect Samsung's general drop in production or a shift to other manufacturing countries. Samsung, which has invested around $18 billion in six factories in Vietnam, with at least two of them focussed on smartphones, declined to comment. The Southeast Asian country, a regional manufacturing powerhouse, reported a 9.3% decline in smartphone output to 20.6 million units in November from a year earlier, the General Statistics Office said. Smartphone output in the first 11 months of the year fell 6.1%.

PHILIPPINES

CENTRAL BANK MAY PAUSE RATE HIKES IN Q1

The Philippine central bank may pause its interest rate hikes in the first quarter of next year if there are "no major shocks", its governor said on Tuesday. The Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas has raised policy rates six times this year to 5.0% to curb inflation, running near 14-year highs, and support the peso which has fallen sharply against the dollar, because of aggressive U.S. monetary tightening. Governor Felipe Medalla told reporters his own "base case scenario" is that the Federal Reserve will pause policy tightening in the first quarter of 2023, easing pressure on the BSP to match its policy actions. The Fed has raised borrowing costs faster this year than at any time since the early 1980s, using jumps of 75 bps at each of the last four meetings to bring the policy rate to its current 3.75%-4% range. Fed policymakers have signaled they may move more slowly starting at their meeting next month, even as some including Fed Chair Jerome Powell have signaled interest rates may ultimately need to go higher. BSP's Medalla said the central bank has room to respond to any Fed move either "fully or partially", depending on data. The central bank, which meets every six weeks, will meet for the last time this year on December, 15.

Dailyhunt, Josh parent VerSe lays off 5% workforce

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

THE parent company of news aggregator Dailyhunt and short-video platform Josh, VerSe Innovation, has fired 150 employees- about 5% of its total workforce.

VerSe Innovation spokesperson said, "Given the current economic climate, like other businesses, we've evaluated our strategic priorities. Considering the long-term viability of the business and our people, we have taken steps to implement our regular bi-annual performance management cycle & made performance & business considerations to streamline our costs and our teams."

According to the spokesperson, this has impacted 5% of its 3,000 strong workforce.

Apart from layoff, the company has also announced an 11% salary cut for all employees with salaries above Rs 10 lakh per annum.

"To ensure long term profitable growth, we have exercised fiscal and employee prudence and implemented a 11% salary cut," the spokesperson added.

VerSe Innovation is bullish across its entire family of apps - Josh, Dailyhunt and PublicVibe to drive profitable growth.

In April this year, VerSe Innovation raised $805 million in the funding round at a valuation of $5 billion.

The round was led by Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (CPP Investments) along with Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board, Luxor Capital, Sumeru Ventures and others. VerSe had said that the investment will be focused on strengthening its leadership position as the fastest growing local language AI driven content platform in the country.

VerSe Innovation became the first unicorn in tech for local languages and counts Goldman Sachs, Falcon Edge Capital, Sequoia Capital India, Edelweiss and Omidyar Network, among others as existing investors.

Alibaba to sell 3% stake in Zomato at 5-6% discount

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

CHINA'S Alibaba Group Holding Ltd is planning to sell nearly 3% stake via block deal in foodtech major Zomato to mop up about $200 million.

The block deal, expected to take place on Wednesday, will see Alibaba Group offering shares at a 5-6% discount to Tuesday's close price, according to reports. Morgan Stanley would be the sole broker to the deal. On Tuesday, shares of Zomato closed 1.63% lower at 63.35 apiece on the NSE.

Alibaba, promoted by Jack Ma, held a 12.98% stake in Zomato as of 30 September. Post the deal, Alibaba stake will come down to 10% stake in the food delivery company.

Earlier in August this year, Uber Technologies sold its 7.8% stake in Zomato for $392 million via a block deal on local exchanges.

Following the expiry of the one-year mandatory lock-in period for pre-IPO investors, similar block deals have been taking place in tech firms such as Nykaa, Paytm, and Policy bazaar.This stake sale by pre IPO investors is having a catastrophic impact on the share prices of new age firms. Most new-age stocks are trading well below their IPO prices and when compared with 52-week highs, these stocks are trading at a discount of 50-75%.

Zomato, for example, had raised 9,375 crore through an IPO in July last year at an issue price of 76 per share.

HIRING IN BFSI, ECOM SECTORS SOAR IN FESTIVE SEASON

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE demand for skilled workers in the banking and insurance industry continues to soar, as recruitment trends in the industry have spiked with consistent hiring activities throughout the festive months.

Hiring activities were up 89% in August, 98% in September and 19October (up 194%) compared to the previous year.

According to business services provider Quess Corp, the e-commerce and logistics industry saw some fluctuation in hiring, with 10% growth in August, which was followed by a hiring slump of 23% in September.

However, the segment recovered in October with a 59% spike. The National Logistics Policy (NLP) announced recently is also expected to positively impact job creation in the Indian manufacturing and logistics industry.

Quess Corp has witnessed over 73% increase in staffing requirements in the festive period from August to October 2022 compared to the previous year. As many as 1,00,000 order books were closed in this period.

According to data from Quess, job roles such as picker, packer, helper, sales promoter, in-shop sales executive, trainee, and production trainee have seen a 39%(YoY) increase in demand this festive season.

Nitin Dave, CEO, Quess Staffing said, "Given that the economy has now recovered from the effects of the pandemic, there is tremendous hiring happening in the e-commerce and retail sectors for temp and flexi staff. People want to buy products, clothing, and services for their homes and daily needs."

Biocon arm closes multi-billion buyout

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

BIOCON BIOLOGICS, a subsidiary of Biocon, on Tuesday announced that it has successfully completed its multi-billion-dollar acquisition of the global biosimilars business of its partner Viatris Inc.

As a part of completing the transaction, Biocon Biologics has issued Compulsorily Convertible Preference Shares (CCPS) in the company valued at $1 billion, equivalent to an equity stake of at least 12.9% on a fully diluted basis, and made an upfront cash payment of $2 billion to Viatris.

To fund the upfront payment, Biocon Biologics has secured $1.2 billion of Sustainability Linked Loan (SLL). The balance has been funded through an equity infusion of $650 million by Biocon Limited and $150 million by Serum Institute Life Sciences (SILS), the company said in a statement.

Biocon Limited's funding comprises $230 million from existing reserves and $420 million through mezzanine financing. Biocon is in the process of securing investments to retire the mezzanine financing, post deal closure. Post the conclusion of the Viatris and Serum transactions, Biocon Limited's stake in Biocon Biologics will be 68%. Biocon Biologics and Viatris have obtained all applicable approvals from key global regulators.

MARKETS RISE

Sensex, Nifty extend gain for 6th session

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

INDIA'S equity market extended gains for the sixth straight session and ended at fresh closing highs on Tuesday, led by gains in fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG), pharmaceuticals and metal stocks.

The BSE benchmark Sensex rose 177.04 points to end at a fresh closing high of 62,681.84 while the Nifty 50 inched 55.30 points higher to settle at a new all-time closing high of 18,618.05. During the day, the two indices hit a fresh all-time high of 62,887.40 and 18,678.10.

The 30-share index Sensex touched a new record high for the fourth consecutive session while the 50-share index Nifty hit a new high for the second straight session.

Naveen Kulkarni, Chief Investment Officer, Axis Securities, said, "Sectors that did well include FMCG, where the market is now pricing in lower pressure on gross margins as packaging and agri prices are expected to cool off from highs of Q2FY23." He added that metals also did well after Chinese regulators eased financing for property developers, a move expected to boost demand for metals.

Symega plans ₹30-cr plant-based meat unit

HRITHIK KIRAN BAGADE
@ Bengaluru

FOODTECH solutions provider Symega Food Ingredients is looking to tap the nascent, yet opportune plant-based meat industry in India, with plans to invest Rs 30 crore towards setting up a new facility in its home turf, Kochi.

Speaking to TNIE at its technology centre in Bengaluru, Symega Director Paolo George said, "The industry is nascent, and even we are early on our journey. However, we have a long-term plan to invest Rs 30 crore in a facility that can help make products which are custom-retrofit to client requests. We are largely a B2B business, and so is our vision in the plant-based products space as well. To reiterate, we are not a toll manufacturer or a private label player in the traditional sense."

The company, a part of the Synthite Group, has already invested 20 per cent of the amount, with a road map to invest the rest over the next couple of years.

Symega embarked on its journey in the realm of plant-based meat two years ago, and has already commenced R&D, and production at a pilot unit in Kochi.

"We already operate a full-fledged pilot plant in Kochi, where our main factories are located. The products from here are now commercially available, but not in our brand. Our offerings include nuggets, patties, sausages, egg powder, and alternate meat, apart from rice-based and nut-based milk products, and vegan cheese. We currently work with 50 customers," George said, adding that their work involves the use of plant-based ingredients such as soy, peas, and jackfruit, among others.

Plant-based meat refers to meat derived from plants. It is manufactured to taste, resemble and feel like animal meat. Plant-based meat is healthier than animal meat, owing to lower calories and saturated fats. The Indian market for such products is at its infancy. According to media reports, the country's meat substitute market is estimated to grow at a CAGR of 7.48 per cent during 2021-26, reaching $47.57 million by 2026.

"Globally, there seems to be a fairly large amount of interest in this space. There is talk of cruelty and greenhouse emissions. We, however, are a work in progress, and we feel it's important to balance price, nutrition, availability, taste, and acceptance, as part of our solution. It's also about aiming for perfection in the quality of the product, through innovation," George said.

Qatar FIFA WORLD CUP FINALS 2022

Bruno Fernandes (not in pic) curled in a cross from the left that barely went over the head of the leaping Cristiano Ronaldo and bounced into the far corner of the net to give Portugal 1-0 lead | AFP

Fernandes brace, but Ronaldo turns heads vs Uruguay

STEVE DOUGLAS @ Doha

CRISTIANO Ronaldo wheeled away in celebration, acting as though he had scored once again at the World Cup.

Not this time.

Instead, it was Bruno Fernandes eventually credited with the goal that set up Portugal's 2-0 win over Uruguay on Monday, advancing the team into the last 16. Fernandes curled in a cross from the left that barely went over the head of the leaping Ronaldo and bounced into the far corner of the net in the 54th minute to give Portugal a 1-0 lead.

A grinning Ronaldo threw his arms in the air, suggesting he got the final touch, and was embracing Fernandes as multiple close-up replays were being shown on the big screens in Lusail Stadium. Alas for Ronaldo, the goal wound up being awarded to Fernandes, who added a second from the penalty spot in stoppage time after a handball by Jose Maria Gimenez as he slid in to challenge the Manchester United playmaker. "I don't really think it matters who scored," Fernandes said about the first goal. "The feeling at the time was that he (Ronaldo) touched the ball — I was crossing it to him — but what's important was we moved into the next round and beat a very big opponent."

Fernandes was denied a hat-trick with virtually the last kick of the game, his shot from outside the area hitting the post and bouncing wide. Portugal, which opened with a 3-2 win over Ghana, became the third team to reach the last 16 after France and Brazil.

Uruguay has one point from two matches and needs to beat Ghana on Friday to stand a chance of advancing. The 2010 semifinalists have yet to score a goal at this tournament, with coach Diego Alonso even putting 35-year-old striker Luis Suarez on the bench in search of the right combination up front. Portugal has no such worries. The team has scored five goals in two games and Fernandes has had a hand in four of them as he dictates play in his role as the team's No. 10.

Ronaldo was unable to add to the penalty he scored against Ghana, which took his World Cup tally to eight goals from five tournaments and his men's record of international goals to 118. He still was the centre of attention, though, illuminating a lackluster first half with tricks and flicks that brought gasps from the crowd inside the World Cup's largest venue, where Ronaldo will hope to return for the final on Dec. 18.

There was a booming layoff with his right shoulder for teammate William Carvalho to volley over in the opening minutes. There was a double stepover and no-look pass that was nothing more than showboating. Then came an impressive chest control as he leapt to receive a cross toward the far post.

Ronaldo is now assured of at least two more matches in what is likely his final World Cup, and will play in the knockout stage for the fourth time in his career.

A draw against South Korea in its final Group H match will secure first place for Portugal, and likely avoid a last-16 meeting with Brazil. As for Uruguay, a must-win game awaits against Ghana — a repeat of the 2010 quarterfinal match won by the South American team in a penalty shootout after Suarez was sent off for a handball on the line in stoppage time of extra time.

Suarez might be recalled for that game after making an impact off the bench against Portugal, shooting just wide from close range after fellow substitute Maxi Gomez curled a shot against the post.

"We'll need to gamble more. We need to be a bold team," Alonso said. Portugal avenged its loss to Uruguay in the last 16 at the 2018 tournament. AP

MATCH POINT

Argentina face another final before the knockouts but Poland hold a slight edge. A look...

MESSI THE KEY MAN

La Albiceleste perhaps panicked a bit by making five changes before the Mexico game. They have all come through unscathed. The key man will against be Lionel Messi who Argentina relies on heavily.

ENZO IN?

Argentina have a few young players coming through, none more gifted than Enzo Fernandez, who scored the team's second against Mexico. He's in that ultra modern bracket who's comfortable in possession, can drive and also like a shot.

POLAND WILL KEEP IT TIGHT

The Poles haven't conceded a goal yet. The combination of Robert Lewandowski and Piotr Zielinski is the attacking fulcrum and they can pick open the defence.

SCENARIO IN GROUP C

If Poland avoid defeat, they go through. Argentina can guarantee progress with a win. They can still advance if Mexico draw with Saudi Arabia. The Asians will advance with a win. For Mexico to advance, they need a win.

Courtois scotches talk of Belgium rift

DOHA: Belgium goalkeeper Thibaut Courtois on Tuesday blamed "invented stories" for fuelling rumours of division within the squad as they fight to avoid an early World Cup exit in Qatar. After a 2-0 loss to Morocco, the world's second-ranked side must beat Croatia on Thursday to ensure they don't head home after the group stage. "I don't think there are any problems in the squad. A lot of things have been said but we want to give everything we can on the field on Thursday," said Courtois.

Koulibaly ensured Senegal reached the last 16, just the second time in their history, as he scored at a crucial juncture to secure a 2-1 win against Ecador

KOULIBALY SENEGOAL

AFP @ Doha

KALIDOU Koulibaly sent Senegal into the World Cup knockouts for just the second time in their history with the winner in Tuesday's dramatic 2-1 win over Ecuador.

The Netherlands' dominant victory over Qatar meant only a win would see Senegal through to the knockouts from Group A, while Ecuador would have progressed with a draw.

Senegal opened the scoring through Ismaila Sarr's penalty late in the first half, but despite managing to keep Ecuador captain Enner Valencia quiet throughout, Brighton's Moises Caicedo levelled in the 67th minute before Koulibaly sent his team through and Ecuador home at group stage.

Senegal manager Aliou Cisse promised before the game his experienced side "would not overthink" the occasion and it was the Africans who opened the game furiously, with Everton's Idrissa Gana Gueye lashing the ball just wide of an open goal after only three minutes.

Less than a minute later, Ecuador goalkeeper Hernan Galindez needed to bail out his side's high backline, sliding in to stifle a counter well outside his box.

On the 10 minute mark, Senegal's Boulaye Dia found himself one-on-one with Galindez, but he cut the ball just wide of the post. Seemingly sparked into life by Senegal's fierce opening, Ecuador pushed forward and won a free-kick 30 metres from goal, with the South Americans taking the opportunity for a rare breather before Valencia slammed the ball into the wall.

After the furious opening exchanges, both sides began to settle and the first half looked set to end goalless before Ecuador defender Piero Hincapie clattered into Sarr, giving referee Clement Turpin no choice but to point to the spot.

GROUP A
Team	M	W	D	L	Pts
Netherlands	3	2	1	0	7
Senegal	3	2	0	1	6
Ecuador	3	1	1	1	4
Qatar	3	0	0	3	0

Sarr stepped up and coolly dispatched a fine spot-kick past Galindez, maintaining eye contact with the keeper as the ball went in.

Ecuador started the second half fresher and more determined, perhaps reassured that the Netherlands' dominance over Qatar meant they only needed a draw to go through. From a free-kick, defender Felix Torres rose high to head the ball on to Caicedo, who was waiting at the far post and slammed the ball home.

Senegal struck back immediately and in almost identical fashion, with Koulibaly lurking unmarked at the far post following a free-kick which was deflected into his path by Hincapie.

Netherlands' forward Cody Gakpo celebrates scoring the opening goal with his teammates at the Al-Bayt Stadium in Al Khor, Doha on Tuesday | AFP

Hosts Qatar see Cody red as Netherlands enter last 16

AFP @ Al Khor

CODY Gakpo scored again as the Netherlands booked their place in the World Cup last 16 as group winners with a straightforward 2-0 victory over hosts Qatar on Tuesday.

The Netherlands, needing just a point to be sure of progressing, put one foot in the next round inside the first half-hour as Gakpo scored for a third straight group game. Frenkie de Jong added another in the 49th minute as the Dutch cruised through in a flat atmosphere at the Al Bayt Stadium.

Qatar, already eliminated before kick-off, suffered the ignominy of becoming the first home team in World Cup history to finish the group stage without a point.

Louis van Gaal's Dutch side ended with seven points at the top of Group A, while Senegal joined them in the knockout phase as runners-up after beating Ecuador 2-1. The Oranje will next take on the second-placed team from Group B for a quarterfinal spot on Saturday.

The Dutch have made a solid start as they look to put the disappointment of failing to qualify for the 2018 World Cup in Russia firmly behind them.

Worker deaths 'between 400-500', says Qatar

DOHA: A Qatari official has put the number of worker deaths for WC 'between 400 and 500' for the first time, a drastically higher number than any other previously offered by Doha. The comment by Hassan al-Thawadi, the secretary-general of Qatar's Supreme Committee for Delivery and Legacy, appeared to come off the cuff during an interview with British journalist.

Pitch invader defends 'breaking rules' despite ban

LUSAI: The Italian who ran onto the World Cup pitch wearing a T-shirt in support of Ukraine and Iranian women defended his protest Tuesday, despite being served a tournament ban. Mario Ferri, 35, a football player with a history of similar stunts, interrupted the Portugal-Uruguay game Monday when he sprinted onto the pitch.

Brazil admit toiling without injured Neymar

DOHA: Brazil midfielder Bruno Guimaraes admitted the favourites lacked some of their usual verve after they needed a late Casemiro strike to beat Switzerland and secure a place in the last 16. "Neymar is such a player, a real star. What team wouldn't miss him," said Newcastle's Guimaraes, who came on as a second-half substitute at Doha's Stadium 974.

WINNERS-TAKE-ALL

THE DANES NEED TO STEP UP IN ATTACKING AREAS IF THEY ARE TO PROGRESS AT AUSTRALIA'S EXPENSE. A LOOK...

Australia: Ryan (1), Karacic (5), Souttar (19), Rowles (4), Behich (16), Mooy (13), Irvine (22), McGree (14), Leckie (7), Duke (15), Goodwin (23)

Denmark: Schmeichel (36), Andersen (2), Christensen (6), Nelsson (3), Kristensen (13), Hojbjerg (23), Eriksen (10), Maehle (5), Lindstrom (25), Dolberg (12), Damsgaard (14)

MORE QUALITY IN FINAL THIRD

Denmark had more passes than both France and Tunisia in their games but it just hasn't clicked for them from an attacking perspective. They have scored only one goal and it's a reflection it was one of their centre-back (Andreas Christensen) who scored it.

OZ WILL BE NEAT AND TIDY ON THE BALL

For a team that does a few niggly fouls (26 in two games), they are a side that likes to retain the ball and play neat passes while having the option of going long. They will look to do the same thing against Denmark. They do have a surprise in them.

SCENARIO IN GROUP D

France are through but need one more point to go through as group winners. Tunisia need a few dominoes to fall their way. Australia will advance at Denmark's expense as long as they avoid loss provided Tunisia don't win big.

GUIDING FORCE

Veterans have important role in Spain's young team

TALES AZZONI @ Doha

AFTER the final whistle of Spain's 1-1 draw with Germany at the World Cup, coach Luis Enrique went out to the field and began talking to some of his players. He spent more time with one in particular, Sergio Busquets, the only remaining member of Spain's World Cup-winning squad in 2010.

Busquets and the other veterans in the team are still playing an important role for Luis Enrique in Qatar, where Spain has one of the youngest squads in the tournament. Youngsters Gavi, Pedri and Nico Williams have attracted most of the attention so far, but the likes of Busquets, Dani Carvajal and Jordi Alba remain key figures for La Roja as it tries to win a second World Cup title.

"It's normal for people to get tired of the veterans," Luis Enrique said. "But the veterans here have been spectacular. I don't bring them just to be hanging around. Jordi Alba is without a doubt the best full back in the world in the last third of the field. Busquets, they wanted to retire him four years ago, but hopefully we can convince 'Busi' to play in yet another World Cup."

The 33-year-old Alba is among the tournament leaders with two assists, with one in each of Spain's first two matches. He is the oldest player in a defense that also includes the 30-year-old Carvajal and 33-year-old César Azpilicueta. In the midfield, it's the 34-year-old Busquets, the oldest player in the entire squad, who has been playing well and providing the needed protection for the 18-year-old Gavi and the 20-year-old Pedri. And in attack, it's the 30-year-old Álvaro Morata and the 26-year-old Marco Asensio performing well along with 22-year-old Ferran Torres and 20-year-old Williams. Morata and Torres have scored two goals each, and Asensio one.

While Busquets is the only player back from the 2010 tournament in South Africa, only three others were in Brazil in 2014 — Alba, Azpilicueta and Koke Resurrección. Six were in Russia in 2018 — Busquets, Azpilicueta, Alba, Carvajal, Asensio and Koke. AP

Desperate India hope for full game in final ODI

Frustrated by the fickle weather, a desperate Indian team led by Shikhar Dhawan would pray for a rain-free final ODI against New Zealand in its bid to finish on an even keel in a series that neither had context nor any major takeaways. Out of five white-ball games, two matches didn't yield any result and one game (T20I) ended in a tie.

Argentina hopes lie on Messi's left

The South American team has a stern test ahead against Poland in a must-win match

STEVE DOUGLAS @Doha

LIONEL Messi has already come to Argentina's rescue at the World Cup. He might just have to do it all over again. Another emotionally charged evening awaits Messi and the soccer-mad south American nation that worships him when Argentina meet Poland on Wednesday for a match with so much on the line.

For Messi, who is playing in likely his last World Cup. For Poland striker Robert Lewandowski, who might also be too old for the next in 2026. And for the World Cup as a whole. Because who, really, doesn't want to see Messi — one of the game's greatest ever players — in the late stages of a tournament that is heating up so nicely. There are multiple permutations at play for the Group C finale: A win for the Argentines and they are sure to advance, likely as the group winners. A draw, and they can either finish in second place behind Poland or be squeezed out by either Saudi Arabia or Mexico, who are playing in a match taking place concurrently.

A loss? Well, that just doesn't bear thinking about for anyone associated with Argentina. The team wouldn't just be eliminated but humiliated. Messi might never be seen in the Albiceleste's sky blue-and-white jersey again. That scenario is too much for Argentina fans to take. It's why tears were shed on the field, among the technical staff and among the fanbase after Messi scored the crucial goal to set Argentina on way to a 2-0 win over Mexico.

Concerns about Messi's health have dogged the seven-time world player of the year at the World Cup, starting from when he trained alone for two days before Argentina's opening game. He played the full 90 minutes against Saudi Arabia and also in the Mexico game, which he finished in some discomfort after turning his ankle late on. Messi later confirmed it was nothing serious. But it only adds to the worries about Messi who is clearly pacing himself during matches, picking and choosing his moments to explode into life.

Can Messi do it one more time for Argentina? AP

Mexico face early exit vs Saudi Arabia

AGENCIES @Doha

MEXICO is going to have to suddenly find goals — and perhaps even several of them — to extend its knockout-round streak at the World Cup.

Mexico has reached the round of 16 at the last seven World Cups, tied for the longest current streak with Brazil. But in Qatar, El Tri sits at the bottom of Group C ahead of a must-win match against Saudi Arabia on Wednesday at Lusail Stadium. The last time Mexico played a WC and didn't advance out of its group was in 1978. But it's not quite as simple as winning: El Tri must also get help. They'll need Poland to beat Lionel Messi and Argentina at the exact same time at Stadium 974. That's the easiest way forward for Mexico.

OTHER SPORTS

Half of all cricketers okay with T20 contracts

GOMESH S @Chennai

IN sports, teams go through transition all the time. But it is not often a sport itself goes through such a transitional phase. Cricket is at such a place now. While franchise-leagues dominating world cricket is not a new theory and has been anticipated for quite a few years, it seems like we are closer to the prediction becoming reality than ever.

Between now and till the end of May, as many as five domestic T20 leagues are set to take place in prominent countries — Lankan Premier League, Big Bash League, SA T20, International League T20, Pakistan Super League and the Indian Premier League — with The Hundred and Caribbean Premier League to follow. And the success of some of these tournaments over the next couple of years could very well be the endgame. The Federation of International Cricketers' Association's report indicates the same.

According to the report, as many as 49 per cent of male cricketers say that they would consider rejecting a national contract for a bigger domestic contract. While the likes of Trent Boult and Martin Guptill have recently asked out of the contract with New Zealand Cricket, that close to half the athletes willing to do the same feels like the tip of the iceberg. That the international schedule is getting skewed with every FTP could have a significant role to play in it as well.

EXPRESS EXPLAINER

An already political event for the reasons explained earlier faced more questions on the eve of Iran vs US, one of the most politically loaded games there is (late on Tuesday). Swaroop Swaminathan takes a look how it has reached this stage and what lies ahead...

POLITICALLY, NOT TOO CORRECT

1 WHAT HAPPENED BEFORE IRAN VS USA?

Two days before the match, some social media handles of the US football federation doctored Iran's flag for a time period. They claimed they did it to stand in solidarity with the protesters in Iran following the death of Mahsa Amini. In retaliation, Iran wanted FIFA to expel US from the World Cup.

2 WHAT THE US TEAM SAID?

In the pre-match press conference, US coach Gregg Berhalter apologised. However, that wasn't the end of it. Iran's journalists (the context is their players have been asked a lot of questions about the protests back home from journalists from other countries as the players have seemingly supported these protests by refusing to sing the national anthem and so on) decided to question both Berhalter and captain Tyler Adams. Berhalter was asked about the presence of a vessel in the Persian Gulf. Adams was asked about 'representing a country that has so much discrimination against black people'.

3 WHAT DID ADAMS SAY?

"... there's discrimination everywhere you go. One thing that I've learned, especially from living abroad in the past years and having to fit in in different cultures and kind of assimilating to different cultures, is that in the U.S. We're continuing to make progress every single day."

4 ANY OTHER THINGS?

Iran coach Carlos Queiroz actually asked English media to ask political questions to England coach, Gareth Southgate. Faced with having to answer political questions before Iran's game against Wales, he said: "Why don't you ask the other coaches?" Queiroz asked. "Why don't you ask Southgate: 'what do you think about England and the United States that left Afghanistan and all the women alone?'" Players of almost all western European nations have been asked about the rainbow armbands (federations decided to wear them to stand in solidarity of the LGBT community in Qatar but backed out after FIFA threatened sanctions). Germany protested in a unique way by placing a hand over their mouths but didn't repeat that in their second match against Spain.

5 GERMANY'S SIDE OF STORY

Nope. But Ilkay Gundogan, who has a Muslim heritage, said he was 'proud' that Qatar is hosting the World Cup. It's significant because he's one of the first from a western country to express these views. "My point of view is now the politics are finished. Qatar is very proud, very proud to host it, also first muslim country, I come from a muslim family, the muslim community is proud, now it is about enjoying and celebrating football," he said.

WHAT'S IN STORE IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS?

There will likely be another round of wire play after the match between Iran and US. But Serbia vs Switzerland (Friday) is another hot button clash. In 2018, these two sides clashed. Swiss goal-scorers Granit Xhaka and Xherdan Shaqiri celebrated with a double-eagle celebration. It's a nationalist symbol in Albania. This relates to historical political tensions in the Balkans and it didn't go down well in Serbia.

INTERNATIONAL
FOOT-BALL MATCH,
(ASSOCIATION RULES)
ENGLAND v. SCOTLAND,
WEST OF SCOTLAND CRICKET GROUND,
HAMILTON CRESCENT, PARTICK,
SATURDAY, 30th November, 1872, at 2 p.m.
ADMISSION-ONE SHILLING.

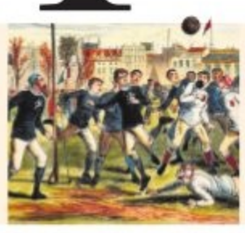
DAY'S DIARY

First match

The first-ever international football match at Hamilton Crescent, Glasgow, between Scotland and England took place on this day in 1872

LARGE CROWDS

The match started late by 20 minutes due to fog. More than 4,000 people paid the one shilling fee – a huge crowd for a time when football was still played in parks

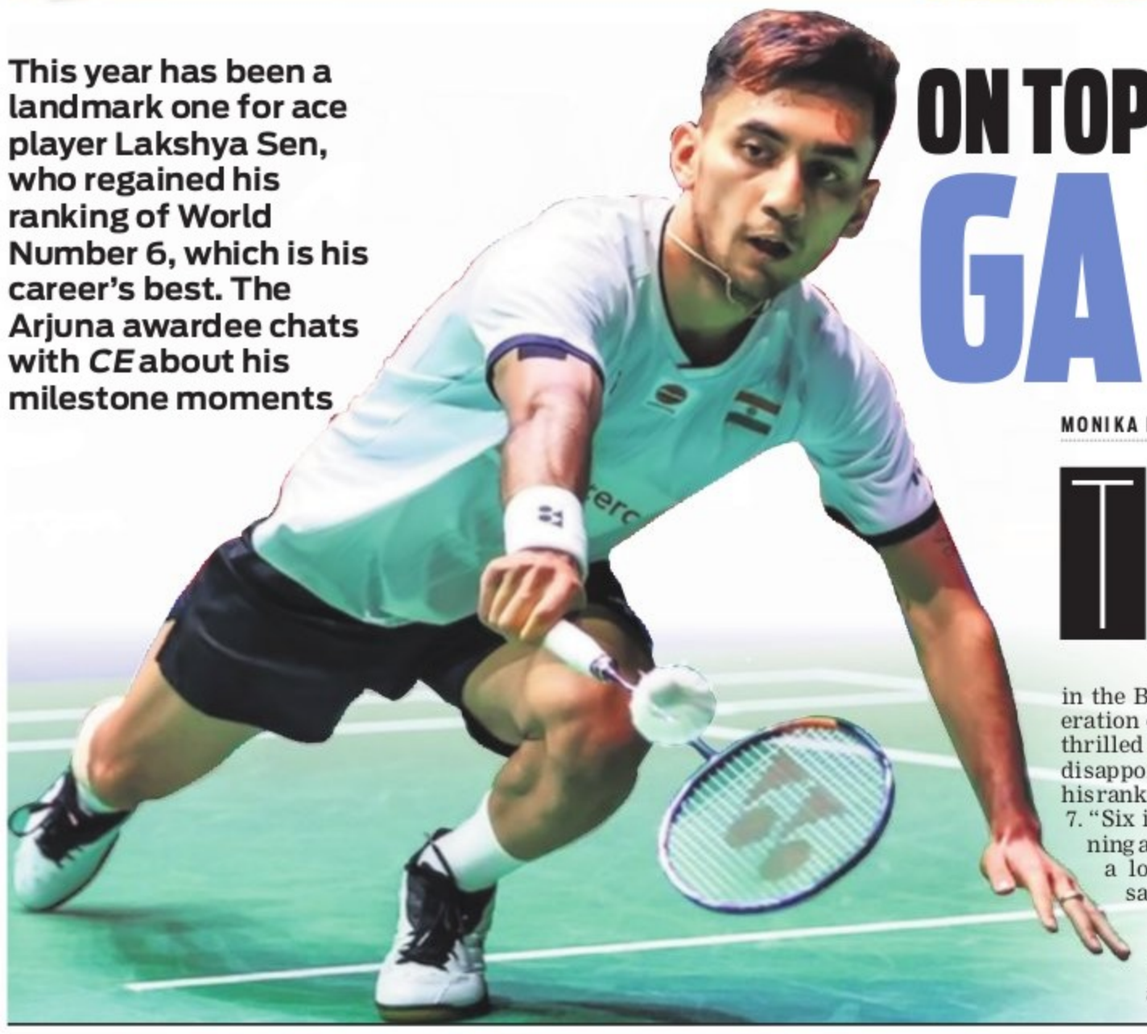


STRATEGIES

Scotland opted for an attack-minded 2-2-6 formation, while England, captained by Cuthbert Ottaway, went for an adventurous 1-1-8 system

A DRAW MATCH

Reports from the game were confined to the sporting periodicals. The Scots enjoyed the better chances of winning, yet the match ended in a 0-0 draw



This year has been a landmark one for ace player Lakshya Sen, who regained his ranking of World Number 6, which is his career's best. The Arjuna awardee chats with CE about his milestone moments

ON TOP OF HIS GAME

MONIKA MONALISA

THERE is no euphoria that can compete with beating yourself. In a dramatic turn of events, badminton player Lakshya Sen gained back his career's best ranking as he rose to Number 6 in the Badminton World Federation on Tuesday. Although thrilled now, Sen was slightly disappointed last week when his ranking dropped to Number 7. "Six is my career best. Winning a tournament gives you a lot of confidence," he says.

Earlier this month, Sen rose to Number 6 from his previous position at Number 8. The leap came despite his first two round exits in his two previous tournaments. However, 2022 has been a landmark year for him in his sporting career. With a gold medal in the Commonwealth Games and Thomas Cup, the 21-year-old is one of the brightest stars in the sporting world. And now with an Arjuna award in his kitty, Sen is ending the year with a bang.

Sen recalls the news was most exciting for his family. "My father got to know first and everyone in the family was thrilled about it. It was a very emotional moment," recalls Sen, who practices at the Prakash Padukone Badminton Academy in Yelahanka.

Although Sen, who is being coached by veteran badminton player Prakash Padukone and Vimal Kumar, gave the recently-concluded Australian Open-Badminton a miss, he is bracing to start 2023 with Malaysia Open 2023 which begins on January 10. "Currently, I am practising for the tournament and it is going well. Right now, I am solely focusing on Malaysia Open 2023," says Sen, hoping he goes back to his top rank.

Lakshya's heartfelt note on Instagram

This has been an amazing year for me. From the time I was a child, I dreamed of participating in the All-England championships. As a matter of fact, that was the only tournament I was aware of at the time. Being a part of the finals was one of the most incredible experiences of my life. Taking home the Thomas Cup was an incredible accomplishment for India. Together, we delivered when it mattered most (sic).

FILMY STORY

Here's a digital board game for those interested in learning about the culture of Karnataka in a fun way through movies

EXPRESS FEATURES

MANY of us might know that one person who knows multiple languages. And that comes from the love of cinema. Tapping that, Madan Kumar has developed an app called ODO, which is an online board game. Kumar's aim for the app is to make it easier for people to learn the language in a fun way. Some of the movies that are listed are Badava Rascal, Humble Politician Nograj, U Turn to name a few.

Kumar loves movies and is a strong believer that nothing is difficult until and unless there is a right way of doing it. "I can speak all the South Indian languages and am self-taught. My knowledge of languages is mostly from watching movies. I picked languages through dialogues. I know so many people who learn Tamil from Rajanikanth movies," says Kumar with a laugh. While this is the second version of the game, the first version was about a simple word-making game.

The other reason Kumar is using movie references is to make people aware of Kannada movies. "It is good to see so many Kannada movies getting recognition nationally. There are many other good movies in addition to KGF and Kantara. I want people to know more about it. And as Indians we love movies, I feel it's easier for us to make something new through movies. Initially, we started with old movies, now we have expanded their database to 800 movies. So every day, there are new scenes or dialogues from the movie," he adds.

WEAVING A SUCCESS STORY

Ahead of saree brand Deepam Silks' golden jubilee celebrations early next month, Vijayshekhar Ravi Deepam, co-director and second-generation businessman looks back at the company's journey

DESE GOWDA

IN the 1980s Bengaluru, a little-known family-owned silk saree brand undertook an ambitious move, relocating from its small showroom on Commercial Street to the nearby M G Road. The decision was fraught with risks, but M Chandrashekar, founder of city's Deepam Silks was determined to grow his business and establish it as the go-to place for silk sarees.

Now, as they get ready for their golden jubilee celebrations, they are ready to launch an exclusive collection of wedding sarees early next month. "Over the last five years, we have been working closely with a few hand-picked designers on our 50th anniversary collection. We hope to launch the collection early next month," says Vijayshekhar Ravi Deepam, co-director, Deepam Silks and a second-generation member of the Deepam family. The price of the golden jubilee collection will range between ₹10,000 to ₹7,50,000.

Going back in time, the saree brand started in a small 400 sqft showroom nearly five decades ago. Today, they stand in a 16,000 sqft showroom on M G Road catering exclusively to wedding shoppers.

"In the early '90s, the industry started growing, with a lot of new players coming into the market. But we have a 40 per cent growth rate year on year," says Ravi Deepam, adding that they shifted their focus exclusively towards wedding shoppers in the early 2000s, away from their previous image as a brand for tourists.

Ravi Deepam feels that success is due to their uncompromising attitude towards quality and a variety of designs. "People tend to cherish their wedding sarees, so we need to offer them something that is unique. We offer our customers the finest Kanjeevaram silks. Even though wedding sarees are quite limited in terms of colours, we ensure that the design of each saree is different from the next through elaborate embroidery work done by our skilled master weavers," he explains.

The brand has master weavers and designers from across the country. "We have master weavers across the country, from people who only work on cashmere embroidery to people down south who work on Kanjeevaram and Dharmavaram. Each weaver is individually chosen for their skillset and craft," shares Ravi Deepam.

Over the last five years, we have been working closely with a few hand-picked designers on our 50th anniversary collection

Brand new couple alert?

Bengaluru is filled with the buzz of designer Aviva Bidapa and actor Abishek Ambareesh getting engaged soon. Aviva is the daughter of style guru Prasad Bidapa, and Abishek is the son of actor-politician Sumalatha and late actor Ambareesh. The engagement is likely to be held in the second week of December. Both the families are keeping the news low-key and waiting for the right time to share the details officially. The couple has been dating each other for sometime but are particular about keeping their relationship details private. Currently shooting for Bad Manners, Abishek is gearing up to kickstart his next project, Kaali.

QUESTIONS

1. The history of NIMHANS dates back to 1838 when Dr Charles Irving Smith, a medical officer at the Hospital for Soldiers created a separate ward for 'insane native patients' at the hospital premises in Cantonment. It was later shifted to a new facility near the peta (old city area) known as the Lunatic Asylum in 1850. The name was changed to Mental Hospital in 1925 and was shifted to the present premises on Hosur Road in 1937. In 1974 NIMHANS was established. Expand NIMHANS.

2. Kempa Cheluvamba General Hospital, popularly known as KC General Hospital was started as a maternity hospital with 40 beds in 1939 and was later converted into a general hospital. It was named after the Mysore princess Kempa Cheluvarajammanni in 1962. The hospital is located in one of the earliest residential extensions of Bengaluru. Name the extension.

3. HSIS Gosha Hospital, a well-known hospital in Bengaluru, was opened exclusively for the gosha women in 1925 with funds donated by Hajee Sir Ismail Sait, a noted businessman and philanthropist in the city. Which busy area in the city is the hospital located?

FIT BIT

VISHRAAM ARDHA BHEKASANA
(RESTING HALF FROG POSE HANDS UNDER HEAD)

This is a combination of Makarasana (Crocodile Pose) and Frog Pose I. Being a resting and relaxing pose, this variation can be part of the restorative yoga or practised at the end of the sequence to relax the hips, back, neck, and shoulders.

STEPS

- Lie down on your stomach in a relaxed way. Bend the left knee and place it on the floor close to the belly.
- Then, stretch the right leg out behind you, while resting the face on the elbow in front of you.
- Remain here for about 12 rounds of breathing while resting the entire body.
- Connect and focus on the slow movement of the paddle board while enjoying the silence around and within you.
- Release and sit up in Sukhasana (Easy Pose). Rub the palms to generate a heat to be placed on the eyes for relaxing completely.

BENEFITS

- Relieves sciatic nerve pain and is also good for people suffering from lower back pain.
- Relaxes tension in the perineum.
- Ideal pose for relaxing for pregnant women in last trimester. Can also practise yoga nidra in this pose.
- Stimulates digestive peristalsis.
- Used as a counter pose to the backward bending asanas like Kandharasana or Chakrasana.
- Cools down the mind and relieves stress.
- Plays an important role in providing mental peace.
- Stimulates the Manipura (solar plexus) chakra which is associated with confidence, vitality, self-esteem and the power of transformation.
- Not only gives you freshness but also energy.
- Concentration increases and meditation and mind are more focused on any work.
- It also improves memory.
- Controls high blood pressure and keeps the heart free from pressure.
- Enhances blood circulation and keeps the internal system healthy and strong.

LIMITATIONS

People injured or recovering from an injury of the hips, knees, pelvic girdle, neck, spine, or rib cage, avoid this.

Those recovering from abdominal or slip disc surgery, delivery or having issues with diastasis recti, should do it safely or avoid this. If you have any other health issues, consult a yoga expert. Pregnant women in the third trimester should take extra care during the practice.

THE WORTH OF WORDS

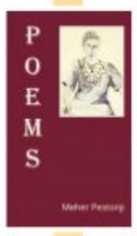
After her panel discussion at the Asia Pacific Literary Festival, writer-activist Meher Pestonji speaks about her upcoming poetry collection, the power of words, and more

From Chanu Sharmila and Meher Pestonji | NAGA RAJA GADEKAL

TUNIR BISWAS

AFTER communal riots, a city doesn't return to what it was," says writer-activist Meher Pestonji to a crowd of mixed variety, with journalists, writers, and students in attendance. This took place during a panel discussion at the Asia Pacific Literary Festival at Alliance University, where Pestonji was accompanied by civil rights activist Irom Chanu Sharmila, university professor Andrea Lorenzo Baldini and hosted by Portuguese writer Hélder Beja.

Pestonji will also be at the festival on Wednesday for the launch of her book of poems, modestly titled Poems. Published by Bluerose Publishers, this will be her first poetry collection despite writing them for forty years. "Even though I have written poetry for many years, I had never published them or taken part in any poetry events. The lockdown had really worked for me, strange to say. A poet from West Bengal started these poetry sessions on Zoom. I have struggled with public speaking in the past, but this was very convenient as I could sit in the comfort of my home and recite poetry to the world. So, I participated in many such events and got a good response from published poets, which gave me the confidence to do a book," shares Pestonji, who is visiting Bengaluru for the second time.



In recent years, there exist multiple instances of writers, journalists, and activists being heavily criticised for something they said or wrote. Having been involved in activism since the '70s when she protested against archaic rape laws, Pestonji believes words continue to hold power in them. "Well, words certainly have power as it challenges the people who are in authority, and they don't like it. So that's what it is," says Pestonji, who feels the number of people speaking out now has reduced a lot.

Personal responsibility towards social change is something each person needs to work out for themselves, believes Pestonji. "I have been told by friends to stop taking risks as I have got a family. Are you ready to take risks? Can you afford to take risks? One needs to figure all these out for themselves and then take it from there. There's no general rule about this. But my response to the question of risk-taking is that yes, I have a family, but I know what kind of world I want them to inherit. So, then I will have to take a stand because I can't leave it to other people to do it," she concludes.

RATS THAT ATE AWAY THE CANNABIS

AS netizens in the age of social media news, we are bombarded with many stories. Most of them pass by us as a blur, but some stick. I found a news report last week saying rats in UP had eaten up 200 kilos of cannabis that were seized at a police station. My first reaction was 'Of course! Of course the rats ate it all!'

But one must not question the government's verdicts on these matters, so like a good citizen, I went with it. The more you think about it, it seems mildly plausible. The rats were from UP, no less. UP is home to the Taj, and boasts of a rich heritage of history and culture but law and order is not really their strong suit. One must also not forget the role of rats. They do not have ethics to abide by, making them 'sarva-vores'. They do not enjoy the patronising company of human beings. Even the most ardent animal lovers coil with disgust over sighting a rat. Rats are at the bottom of the food chain, eaten by every single creature around them. Leave your pets unmonitored for an hour, and they'll pounce on a rat. Rats are hustlers – they eat whatever they get and enter spaces with an entrepreneurial spirit.

HRIDAY RANJAN
Urban Bourbon
(Writer, comedian)

Which brings us to the next question – do rats get high? I studied commerce in school, but I assume they do as most human experiments are first conducted on rats. Rats have small appetites, and so assuming that an average rat eats about 200 grams in one go, you'd still need about a thousand rats to attack the cannabis godown. I can imagine the joy of the rats – after scrounging through gutkha splatters and leftovers – chancing upon the herb of the gods! It must have been like Ratatouille. I wonder if they walked the lanes more fearlessly, smiling at cats and dogs on the streets. I wonder if they looked up to the sky, looking predators in the eye. Maybe it was thier version of Woodstock – where free-spirited, hippie rats got together to discuss revolutionary ideas. Perhaps they visited the delicious sweet shops in UP, feasting on all the delicacies that are raved about on YouTube. Upon further research, I found that this wasn't an isolated incident. When the Bihar government banned alcohol in 2017, police reported rats consuming 'thousands of litres of seized alcohol'. Attacks of seized cannabis have also been reported twice earlier. Which can only mean one thing – a revolution is quietly fermenting among the UP rats. Perhaps they are a brand of renegade revolutionaries – attacking booze stocks, ransacking cannabis sacks, and living their lives wild and freely.

Perhaps they are fighting for rights. Languishing at the bottom of the food chain, rats need isolation from their predators. As a human being who believes in human rights, I firmly believe we are sympathetic to photogenic animals. I find it cruel that the humble rat can be eaten by everybody around it. As an animal lover, I am with the rats in this one. May they get to feast on all that is denied to humans. Long may their revolution last!

SUNNY LEONE PART OF UPENDRA'S UI?

Speculation is that the actor has already shot for a few crucial portions

Sunny Leone

Upendra

A SHARADHAA

UPENDRA'S directorial comeback, UI, is currently on floors, and the shooting is underway at a rigorous pace. However, apart from Upendra and Murali Krishna, none of the other cast members were announced by the makers. According to reports, Nidhi Subaiah, Indrajit Lankesh, Prasant Sambargi, and Om Saiprakash are part of the ensemble cast in cameo roles.

Now, we have learned that actor Sunny Leone is set to play a pivotal role in the film. According to our source, Sunny, who has appeared in a special dance number in films like DK and Champion, was recently in Bengaluru to shoot a few crucial scenes for UI. But the team is tight-lipped about Sunny Leone's inclusion in the project.

UI, which was launched with much fanfare in June, marks the return of Upendra to direction after a 7-year gap. The film is backed by G Manoharan's Lahari Films and KP Sreekanth's Venus Entertainers.

KGF art director Shivakumar has been roped in for the project, which will have cinematography by Prajwal

The rest of the details about the cast and crew, including music director and other leads, are awaited.

Kangana Ranaut to star in Chandramukhi 2

CE FEATURES

KANGANA Ranaut is said to play the titular role in the upcoming sequel Chandramukhi 2, which will be directed by P Vasu.

The film's prequel released in 2005 and starred Rajinikanth, Jyothika, Vadivelu, Nayanthara, among others. It was the Tamil remake of hit Malayalam film Manichitrathazhu and was remade in several Indian languages.

According to IANS, Kangana will be essaying the role of a dancer in a king's court. The sequel will have Raghava Lawrence play the male lead, with costumes designed by Neeta Lulla.

"To create a character who is the epitome of grace, her looks, her hair, her stance and walk exude and portray the spirit of dance. To me, that is Chandramukhi. The film is going to be a beautiful yet challenging experience. I'm very excited to be working again with Kangana in this project, her sheer strength as an actor lies in the ability to lose herself to the character she is playing. Can't wait to see what amalgamates in Chandramukhi 2," the costume designer was quoted as saying.

As per the report, Kangana will begin shooting for the film in the first week of December. While she is also working in her second directorial Emergency, the second schedule of Chandramukhi 2 will start in January. The film is expected to be dubbed and released in several South Indian languages.

'I like being part of films with unique plots'

...says Aishani Shetty, who talks about her upcoming film, Dharani Mandala..., which will be her first attempt at the crime genre

Aishani Shetty

CE FEATURES

AISHANI Shetty has created her unique path in the film industry and admits to being different from her contemporaries. "Having started my career in 2015, I have done very few films (Vaastu Prakasha, Naduve Antaraviralli, and Rocket among others). Since I'm also pursuing my education, I opted to be part of films that I strongly believed in. However, I am now planning to take up more projects," says Aishani Shetty, ahead of the release of her upcoming film, Dharani Mandala Madhyadolage, this week. "I have received good recognition for the films I have done. People have praised my performance and voice too. I have chosen memorable roles that people can identify me with, and this is something that makes me happy."

Aishani feels that Dharani Mandala... is yet another distinct attempt in her filmography. "My previous films were usually family entertainers, and I've mostly explored films with elements of love. But for the first time, I am attempting a crime film. When Sridhar Shikaripura approached me, I was quite skeptical because of the subject, and the arc of my role. However, when the director described the characterisation, I jumped on it," says the actor.

The actor plays the role of an extremely bold character named Shreya. "She has a very punk style of dressing up, and has a distinct look. A lot of experimentation went into my character, which has not often been explored in Kannada cinema. We took references from Hollywood to capture the style and attitude that we wanted," says Aishani, who shares that there are montages where we can see a different shade of Shreya. "Having seen me as a cute, lover girl, I was happy to showcase my versatility with this unique stylish character. The audience will be surprised to see me as Shreya. While I still love to be part of romantic films, I am confident of pulling off such challenging roles in unique plots."

A still from the film

The six-film-old actor, who has Ondisi Bareyari, up next for release will soon turn director too. "The thought of getting behind the camera was always there. I had helmed a short film, Kaaji, and wanted to do more short films. But my friends and colleagues encouraged me to take up a feature film because they believe in my capabilities. I have so many stories to tell, and not everybody comes up with those stories. Since I have the right subject, I felt it is the right time to turn director. Having said that, I will not give up on my acting assignments either. A lot of heroes do it, and I think I can do it too," she asserts.

Urging the need to encourage and recognise women directors, Aishani says, "Rishika Sharma, who has directed Vijayanand is a very young contemporary of mine. The platform gives more space and opportunities for women directors, and all they require is the right kind of support from people, and the industry too."

2nd Life to highlight the importance of stem cells

The suspense thriller directed by Raju Devasanda is set to release on December 2

CE FEATURES

2ND Life marks the second outing of actor Adarsh Gunduraj, who made his debut with Swartharatna. The chartered accountant-turned-hero will headline the multilingual suspense social thriller, which is backed by Jayanna Films and Shukra Films.

The film, which is slated for a December 2 release, is directed by Raju Devasandra (Gosi Gang and Kahle Kadu) and will feature Sindhu Rao and Shiv Pradeep in pivotal roles.

"2nd Life highlights the importance of storing stem cells at the time of delivery of babies, and my role is in stark contrast from my first film," says Adarsh, who adds that the film about stem cells is not just a unique thought but is a socially relevant topic.

"I'm hopeful the audience has a message to take away from my film," says the actor. With music by Arav Rishik and cinematography by Ramesh Koira, 2nd Life is shot in Kannada, Telugu and Tamil, and has National award winner Vikram More choreographing the stunts.

'I AM AN ARTIST, NOT AN ACTIVIST'

Ayushmann Khurrana talks about his upcoming film An Action Hero, breaking out of his image, preferring quirk over taboo, and being apolitical

KARTIK BHARDWAJ

AYUSHMANN Khurrana is wearing a bright, red shirt with high-waisted jeans at the interview. "This film is not just quirky, it is also presenting me in a different fashion," he says, with a shy, easy smile. The film is Anirudh Iyer's debut directorial An Action Hero, in which Ayushmann plays the titular role. Unlike playing his usual, timid characters on screen, this time the actor slips into the shoes of an alpha, cannonballing off rooftops and locking horns with a herculean Jaideep Ahlawat. Ayushmann talks about breaking out of his image, his relationship with taboo, and why he thinks there is no point in actors being political.

Excerpts from a conversation

Your role in An Action Hero is very different from those you usually portray on screen. When you got the script, what did you visualise it was going to be?
I thought it was going to be an edge-of-the-seat action thriller that is quirky at the same time. I wanted to break out of my social-comedy space. I have given genre-breakers like Andhadhun and Article 15 in the past and it was again time to do something different.

How important is it for you to do something diverse each time?
Very. Doing something varied gives me a kick. I do it irrespective of how the films perform at the box office. I am always on the lookout for something that has never happened before in Hindi cinema. My main focus, with every project, is to do something different.

An Action Hero*, more than a high-octane action film, is also a satire. But, if it was just a pure actioner, would you still be interested?
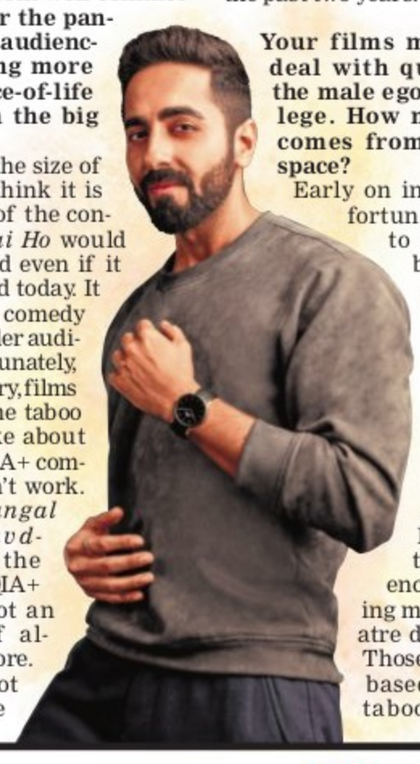
If it holds the audience for two hours, then why not? But if I am the protagonist and it is a pure action film, I doubt people will be interested. I come with the image of being quirky, so a hatke factor is important in my film.

I remember, before the pandemic, Badhai Ho, a small-budget film, was one of the highest grossers. Your last film Doctor G, however, didn't perform well commercially. After the pandemic, are audiences expecting more than a slice-of-life comedy on the big screen?
More than the size of the film, I think it is the nature of the content. Badhai Ho would have worked even if it was released today. It was a taboo comedy but for a wider audience. Unfortunately, in our country, films with extreme taboo subjects like about the LGBTQIA+ community, don't work. Shubh Mangal Zyada Savdhaan was the only LGBTQIA+ film that got an opening of almost ₹10 crore. But I met a lot of people who said that they didn't watch it because it had two guys kissing. Similarly, Doctor G, got an A certificate and that limits the audience. Anything that restricts viewers will be risky in theatres. I would have to leave taboo for a while because it is not for a wider audience anymore. But I can't leave quirk. Now, I need to explore the relatable quotient more than the taboo quotient when it comes to theatrical releases. That's the learning in the past two years.

Q&A



Your films mostly deal with questioning the male ego and privilege. How much of it comes from personal space?
Early on in life, I was fortunate enough to experience both the progressive and regressive sides of society. So, it is easier for me now to portray those sides on screen. But I think the experience I had during my street theatre days helped. Those plays were based on social taboos, I guess my filmography is just an extension of that.

An Action Hero*'s trailer shows a superstar on the run after a possible murder. He is being boycotted by the people and debated over on news channels. Recently, a lot of actors were being attacked on social media for the statements they made. Were you ever cautious of what you say in interviews or post on the internet?
I am apolitical. Whatever I have to say, I say through my films. There is no point for an actor to be political because the audience comprises people of all kinds, of all ideologies. Offending anyone, triggering a debate, or being confrontational on social media is not worth it. That will only harm one as an artist.

But actors are youth icons...
Then you say through your choices in cinema, through your art. Don't do a regressive film, do progressive films. I consider myself as an artist, not an activist.

Even after being an established actor and being in the industry for about 10 years, you still work with a lot of first-time directors. Have you ever considered it to be a risky bet?
Maine toh poora career hi first-time directors pe banaya hain (I have made my entire career with first-time directors). Newcomers are also more collaborative. If I stop taking risks, what is the use?

Any action hero you like?
I find Jackie Chan very entertaining. Apart from the action, he was just so funny. In contemporaries, I think nobody can do action like Tiger Shroff or Vidyut Jammwal.
